The Search of Yout

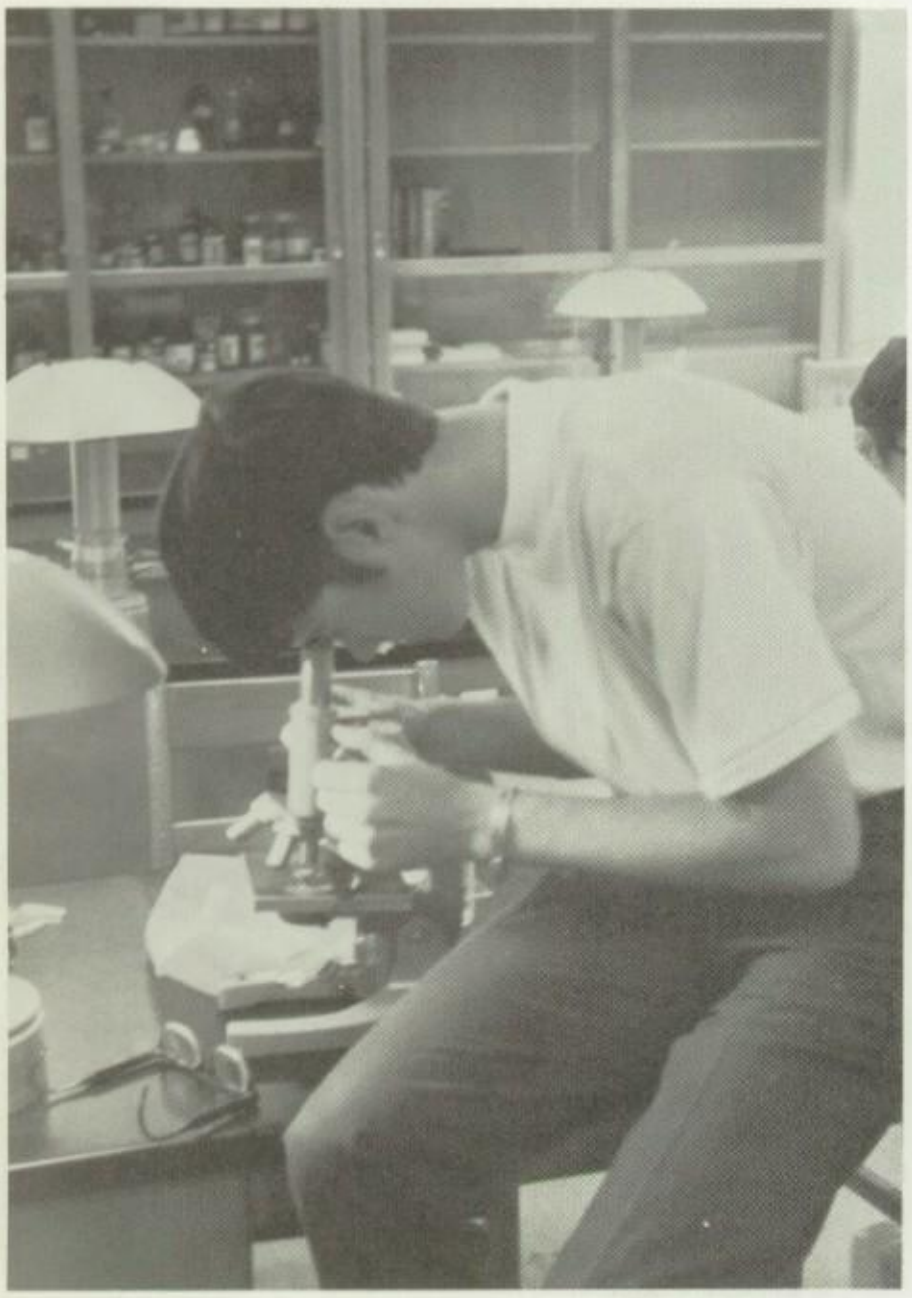
for laughter . . .

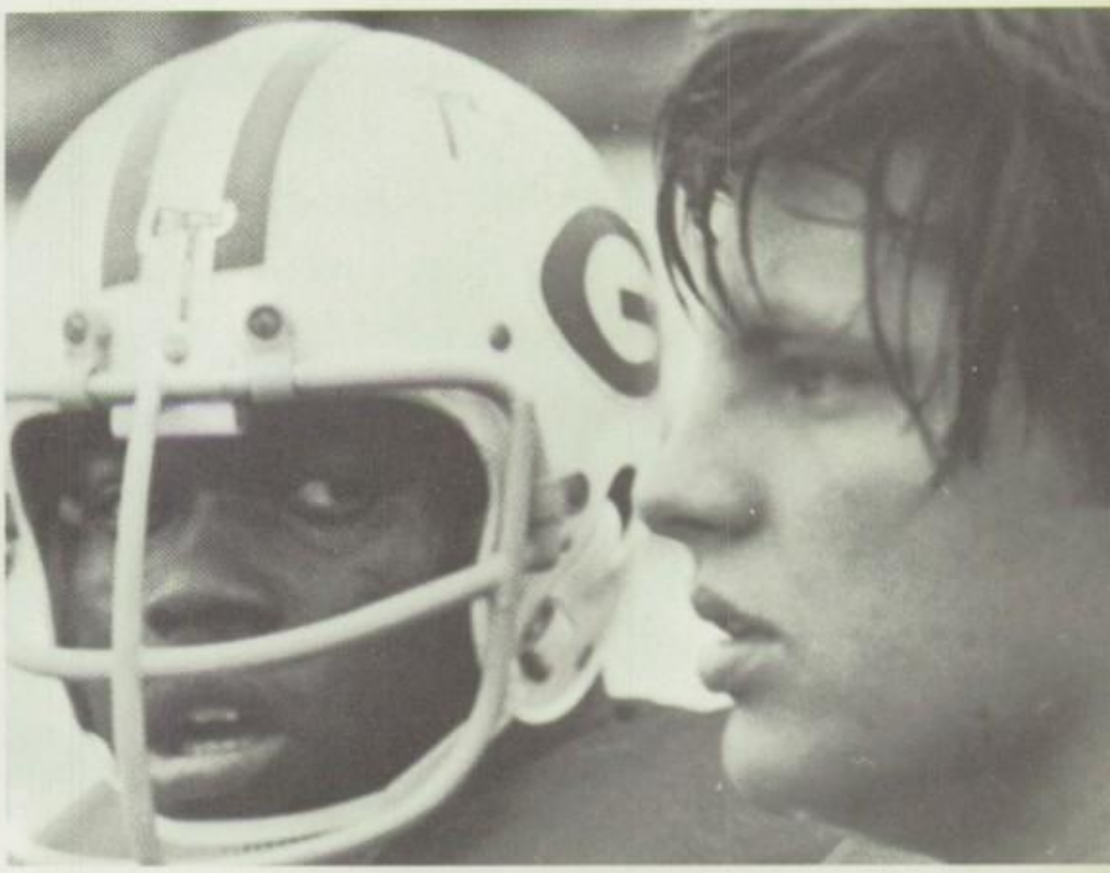
for friendship . . .

for acceptance . . .

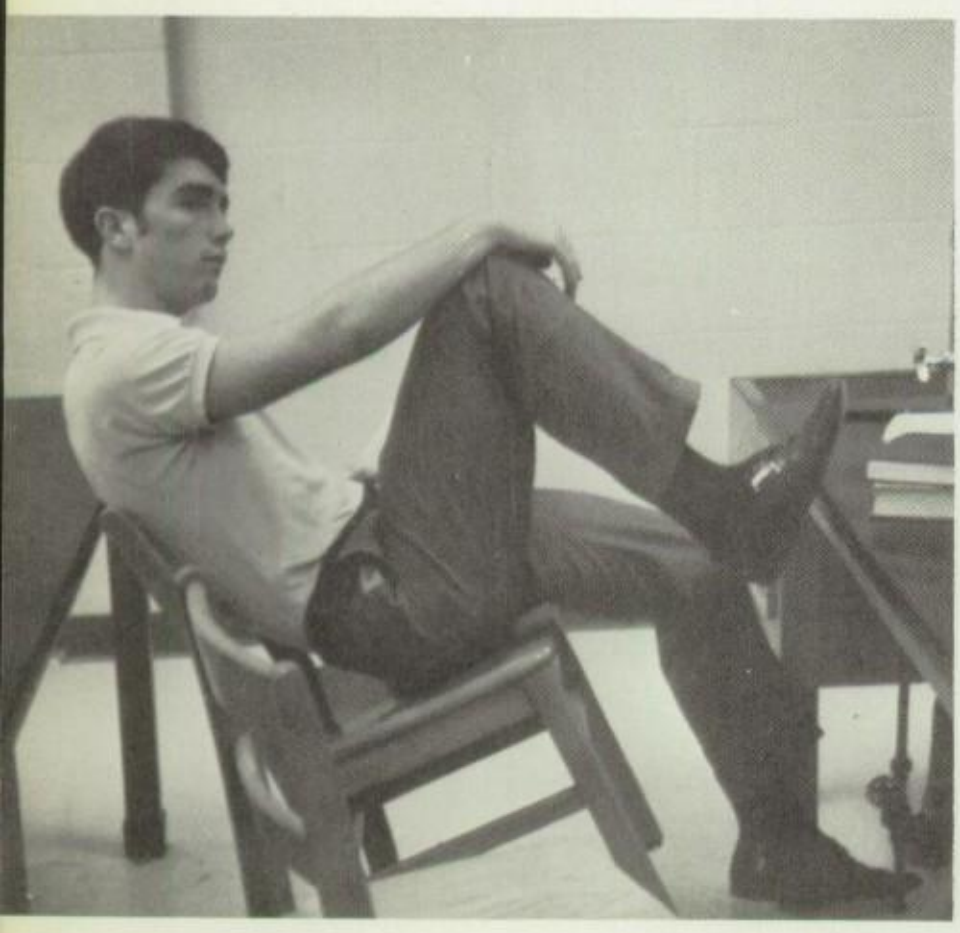
for identity . . .

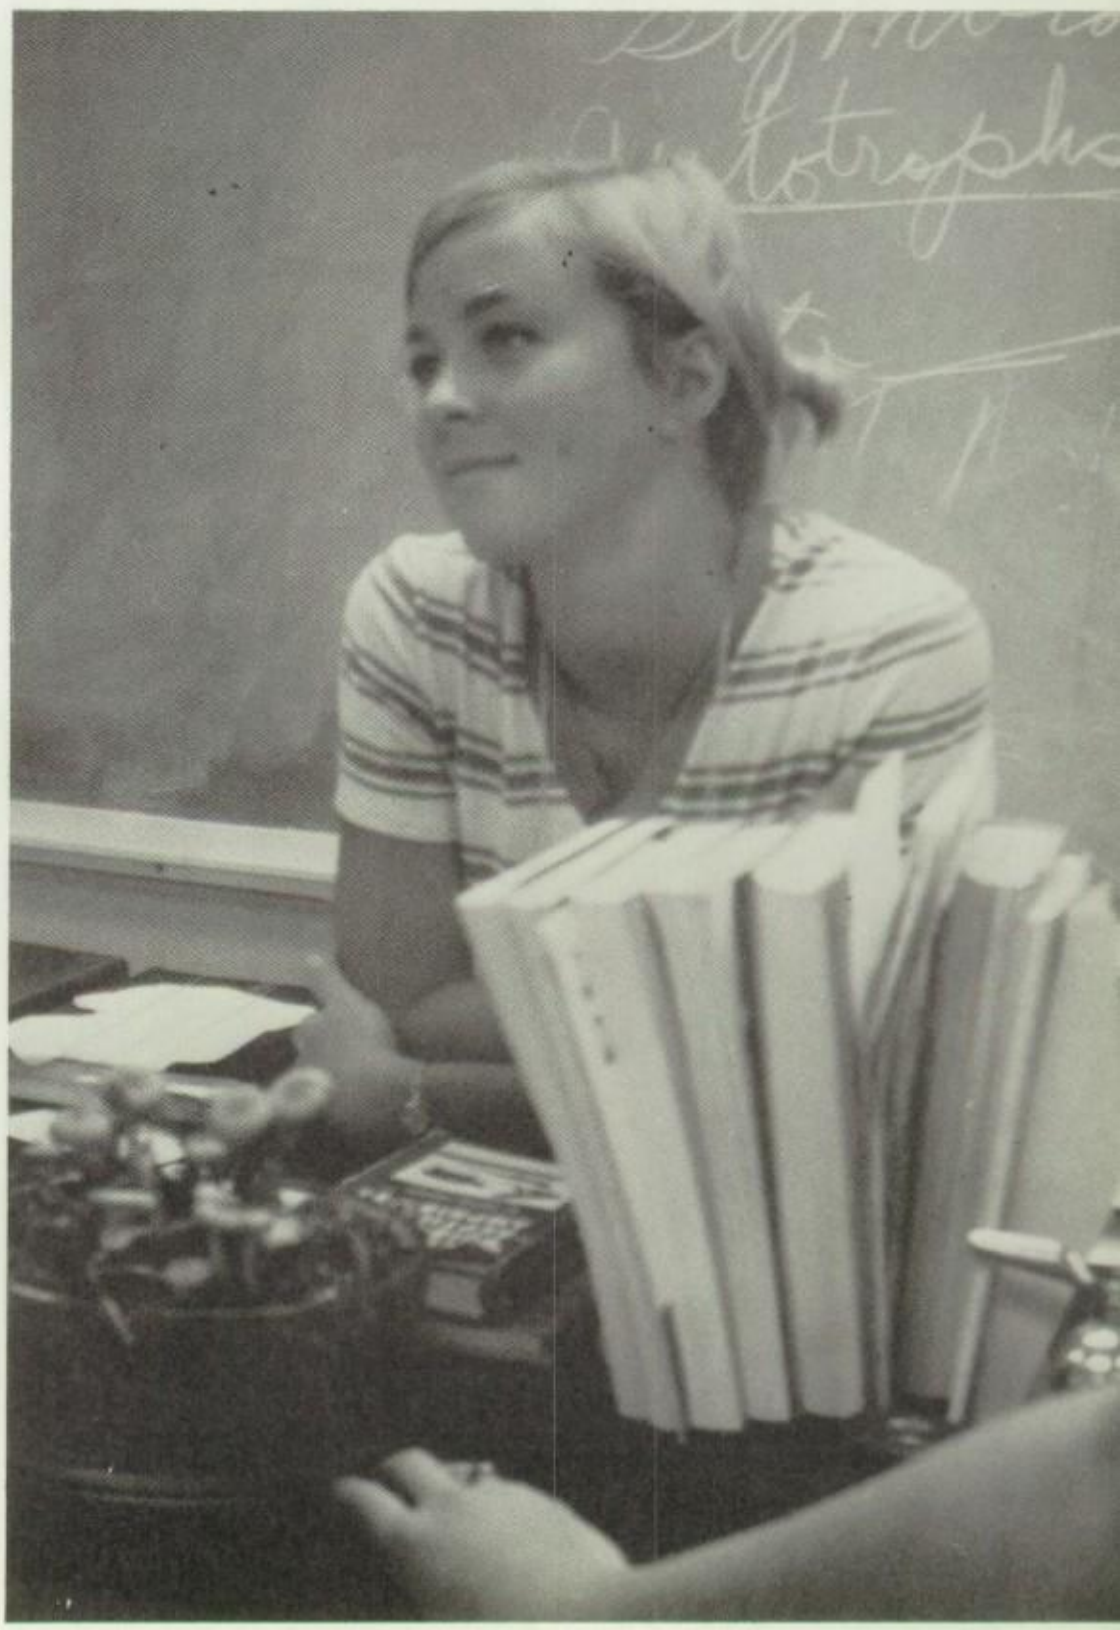
for truth.





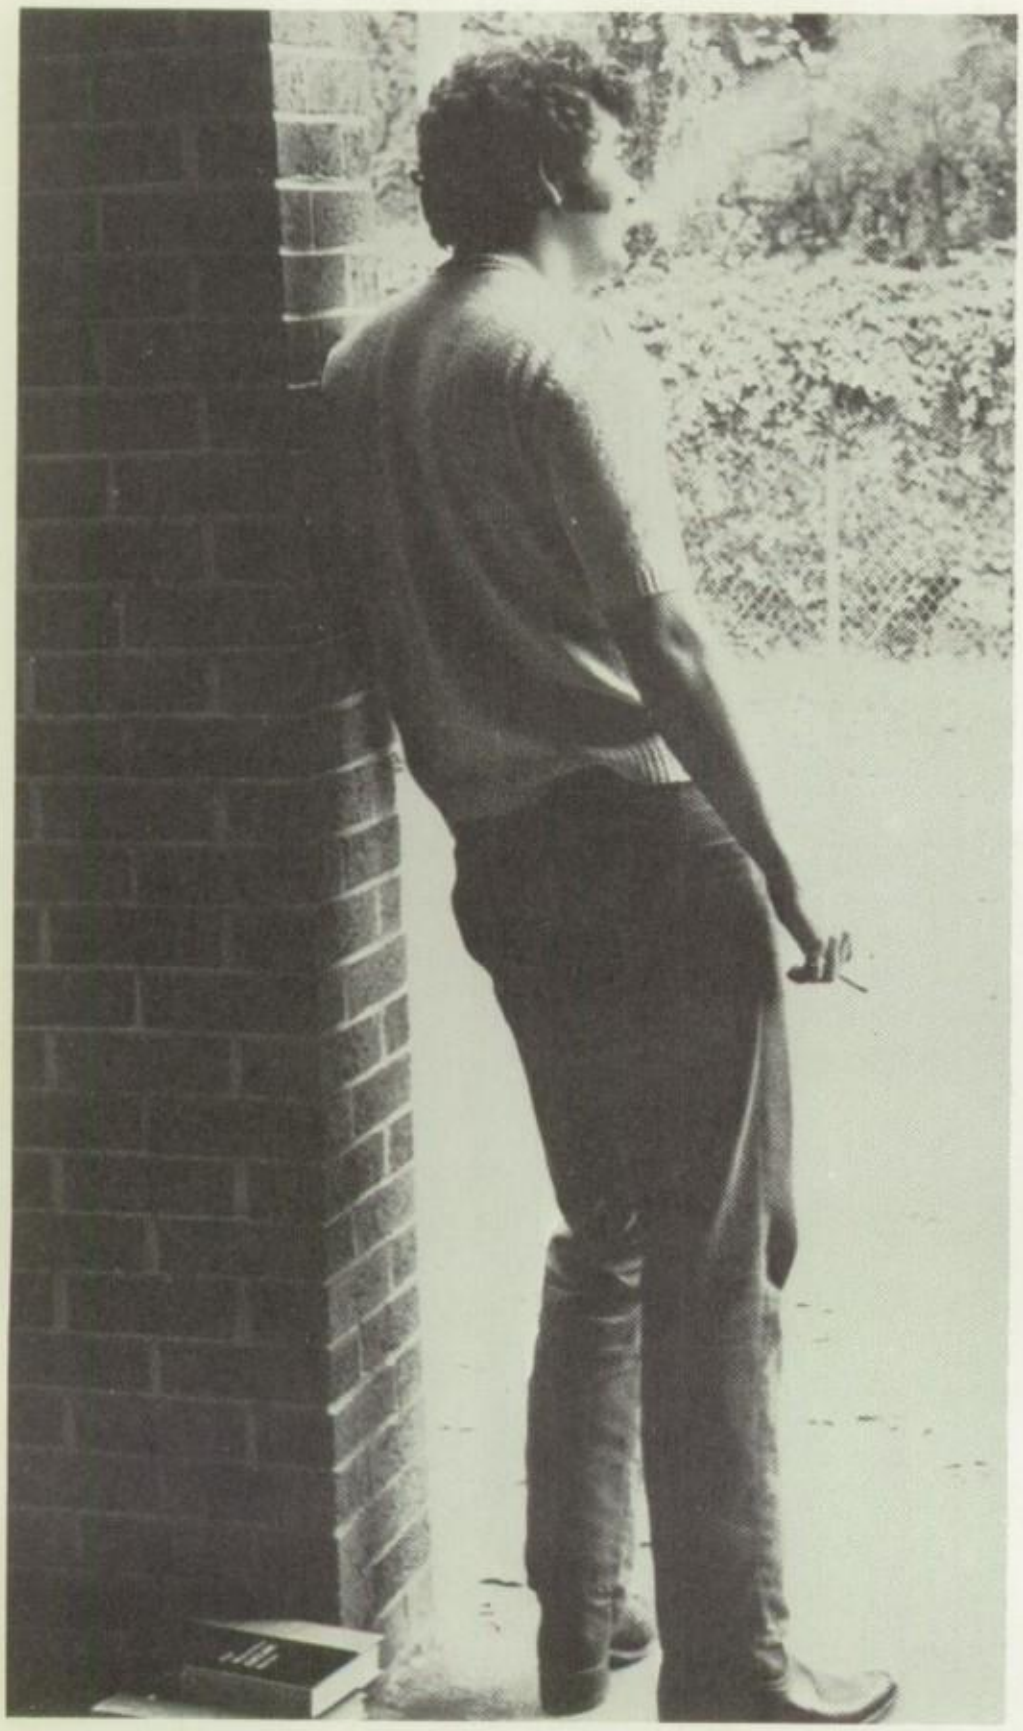
Images of Ourselves As We Explore Life





In this fast-moving, overpopulated world, we're searching for our own identity. We're asking ourselves who we are, what we want from life; and as our lives become more complex, we wonder how we will face adult decisions. Each of us wants to be someone, not just a shadow in the crowd.

Student Life



RADIO Super

Many People Within Ourselves . . .

Leaders, followers, children, adults . . . Our actions and our lives are guided by the many voices within our own personalities. Our role in society is ever changing as we meet and accept the challenges of leadership, involvement, and personal relationships. We experience the many facets of life and discover that we are expected to be, and we are, many people within ourselves.

The night is still,
Filled with the silence of an unknown world.
The moon shines down on that silent world.
The headstones are motionless in the stirring breeze.
The grass, by their resting place,
is wet with dew.
They are dead, but they will live,
In the minds of men they will live.
For when the body, and the living mind are united
Then there is life.

Homecoming Kindles Feelings of Unity

Cinderella's Coach, the Gingerbread House, and the Land of Oz highlighted the 1970 Homecoming preparations. Early in October work began on floats which centered around the theme "The World of Make-Believe." Hours of labor, an air of expectancy, and a new kind of spirit unified Rose as students worked together to make the 1970 Homecoming worthwhile.

Although parade plans had to be cancelled, the assembly was a success. The stage band provided lively background music, and the Birodanjles portrayed "Make-Believe" through their costumes and songs. After student speakers were filmed by WNCT-TV, football sponsors and class princesses were introduced to the student body. Climaxing the event, Sheila Teel and Linda Iseman were crowned Homecoming Co-Queens. Despite the rain the following afternoon, the Rampants rolled to a muddy victory over the New Bern Bears, 25-6.

1970 Homecoming Co-Queens

Sheila

Teel's warm personality and vivacious spirit are displayed through her quick smile and readiness to help others. As co-head cheerleader, Sheila spreads her enthusiasm throughout the student body. This past year she has acted as co-chairman of the Human Relations Committee and has helped organize an inter-school workshop. Sheila devotes much of her time to singing with the Crusaders and the Methodist choir. During the past summer she represented her church as a delegate to the A.M.E. Zion Convention at Salisbury, North Carolina. As a member of Les Charmante-Elles service club, Sheila fulfills her desire to work for others. In her occasional moments of spare time, she enjoys cooking and sewing.

Linda

Iseman's friendly smile and optimistic outlook are her winning qualities among Rose High students. As a result of her father's career in the navy, Linda has had an opportunity to live in many different sections of the United States and Europe. As a Greenville resident, Linda attends Saint Gabriel's Catholic Church and participates actively in local prayer groups. In addition to working at two local businesses, she finds time for her other interests which include art, modern dancing, and drama. She also enjoys camping out and studying wildlife.

NHS Adopts Constitution

The purpose of the National Honor Society is to develop citizenship and to create an enthusiasm for superior scholarship. This organization stimulates a desire to serve one's school and community and to display exemplary qualities of character. This year the NHS members revised the constitution and changed induction procedures. Based on scholarship, leadership, character, and service, students were evaluated by teachers. Two NHS members, Brenda Bell and Kathy Petrie, were selected by a panel of teachers as nominees for the N.H.S. scholarships valued at $1000 each. The National Honor Society's primary service project this year was selling sandwiches at the NCAE District Teacher's meeting, held in Greenville. Mrs. Audrey Whitehurst and Mrs. Naomi Dunn are advisors to the society.

Quill And Scroll Encourages Journalists

The Quill and Scroll honor society strives to raise the standard of high school journalism. Selected from the Rampant Lines and Visa staffs, members must be in the upper third of their class in academic standing and have made an outstanding contribution in some phase of journalistic work. The goal of this international honorary organization is to inspire greater effort on the part of staff members. A candlelight ceremony solemnized Quill and Scroll inductions in December.

Advisors Mrs. Dorothy Phillips and Mrs. Jane Schwarz discuss club plans with officers.

Quill and Scroll members begin the rites of inducticn.

Students Merit Recognition

Governor's School scholars for 1970 were Susan Walker, Susie Hill, Steve Rogers, Brenda Bell, Geoffrey Mitchell, and Kathy Petrie.

Governor's School

Seven outstanding students from Rose High attended Governor's School during the summer of 1970. Selections were based on exceptional achievement in either of two major areas. In the performing arts, Steve Rogers, Susie Hill and Susan Walker were selected for their outstanding abilities in voice, while Kathy Petrie and Trenton Teis excelled in instrumental music. In the academic category, Brenda Bell was chosen for natural science and Geoffrey Mitchell for math. Attending classes for seven weeks at Salem College, the students concentrated on their major field of study.

National Merit Semi-Finalists

Those qualifying as semi-finalists for 1971 National Merit Scholarships are Marcia James, Steve Worsley, Kathy Petrie, Chris Indorf, Ann Fleming and Susan Walker.

Boys', Girls' State

Susan Hufford, Steve Worsley, and Pat Harrison were Girls' State and Boys' State representatives for 1970.

1970 Marshals

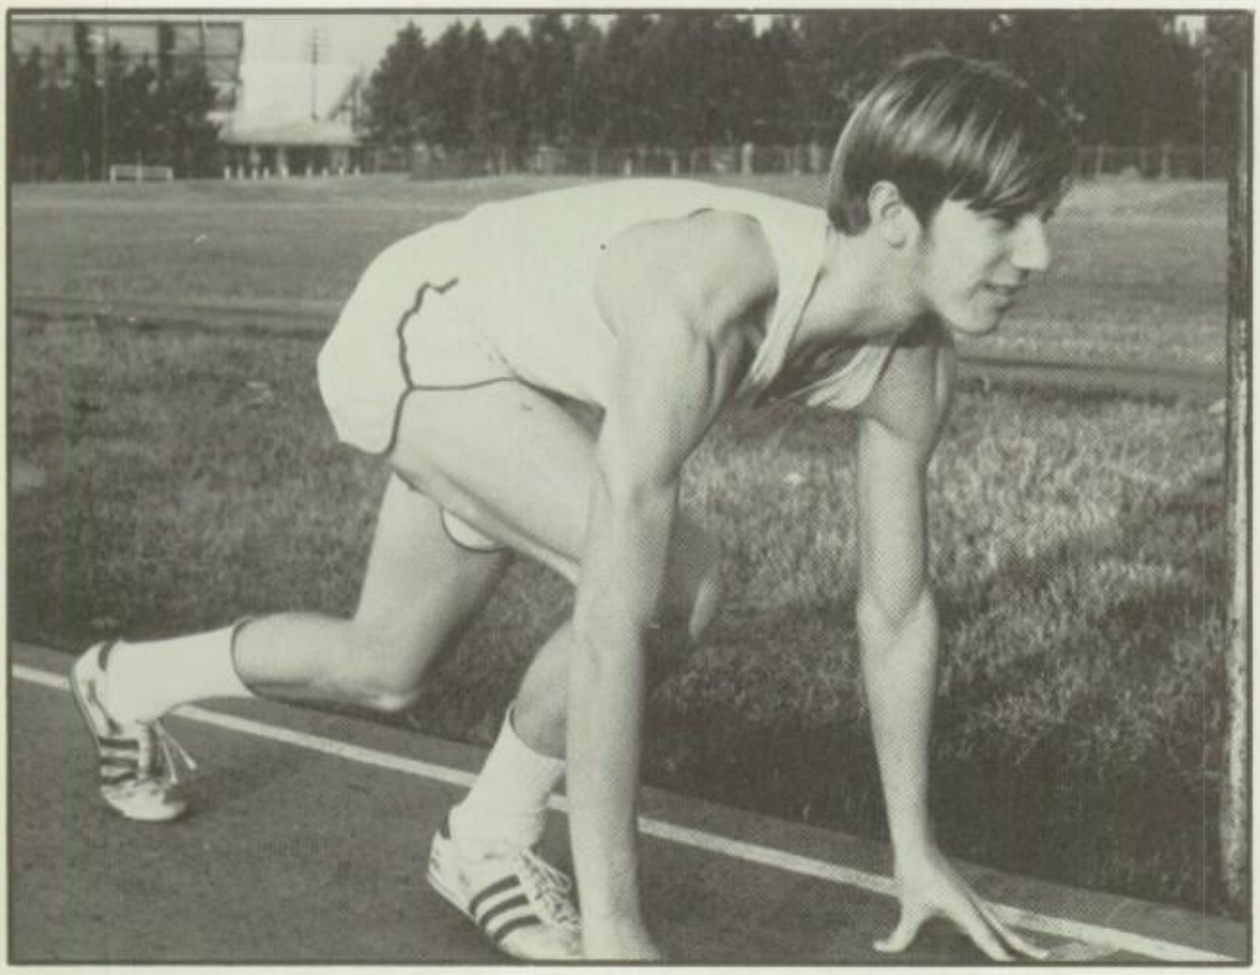
Marshals Aid Graduates

Assisting at Baccalaureate and Commencement exercises, marshals usher guests and pass out programs. Twenty-three marshals were chosen for their high scholastic averages from freshman, sophomore, and first semester junior years. The 1970 marshals made pom-poms to mark reserved sections in the stands and rosettes which were used as marshal identification tags. Advisors Mrs. Martin, Mrs. Carr, Miss Smith, and Mrs. Graves worked with the marshals to assure smooth operation of the 1970 graduation.

Who's Who Honors Outstanding Seniors

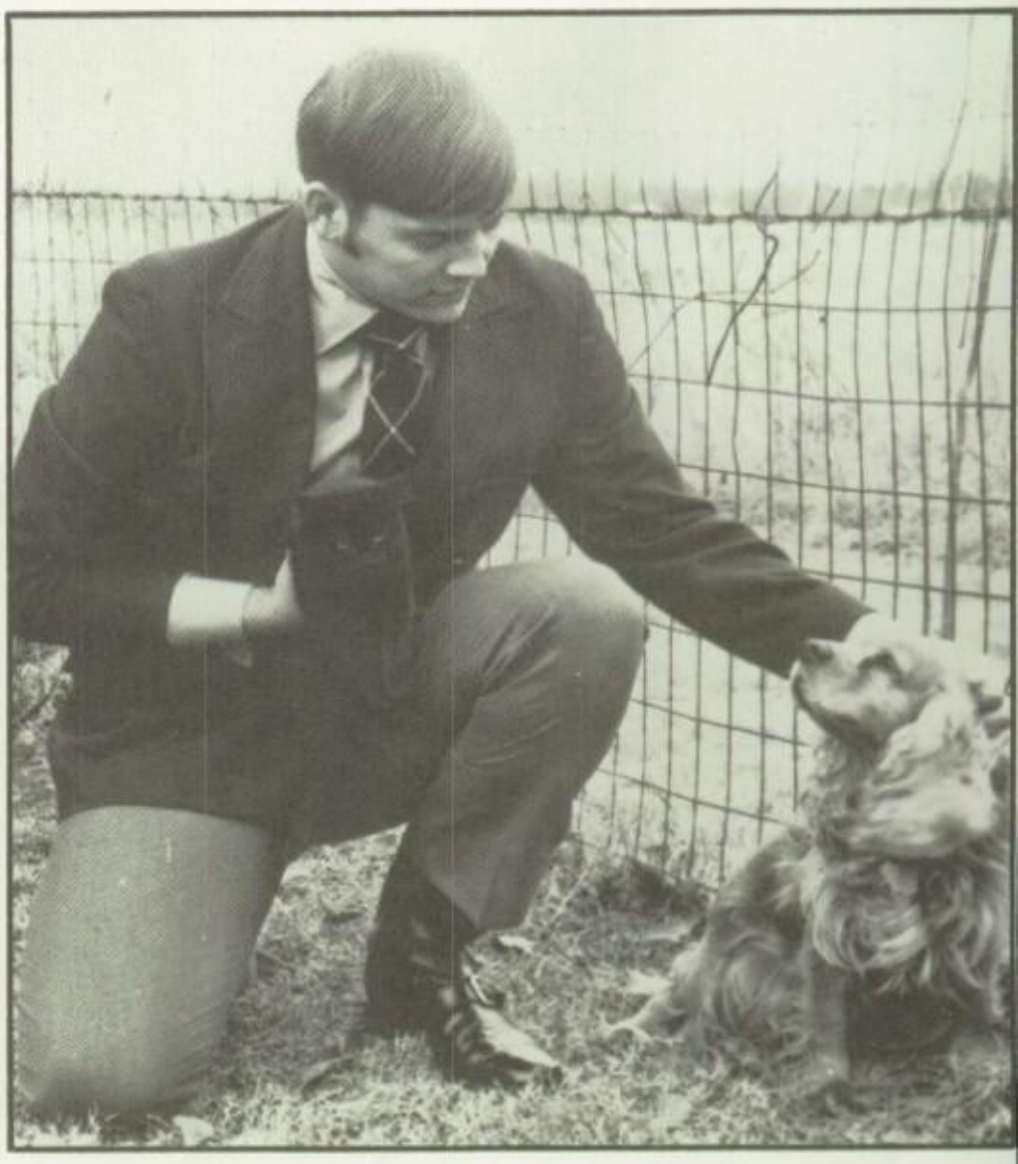


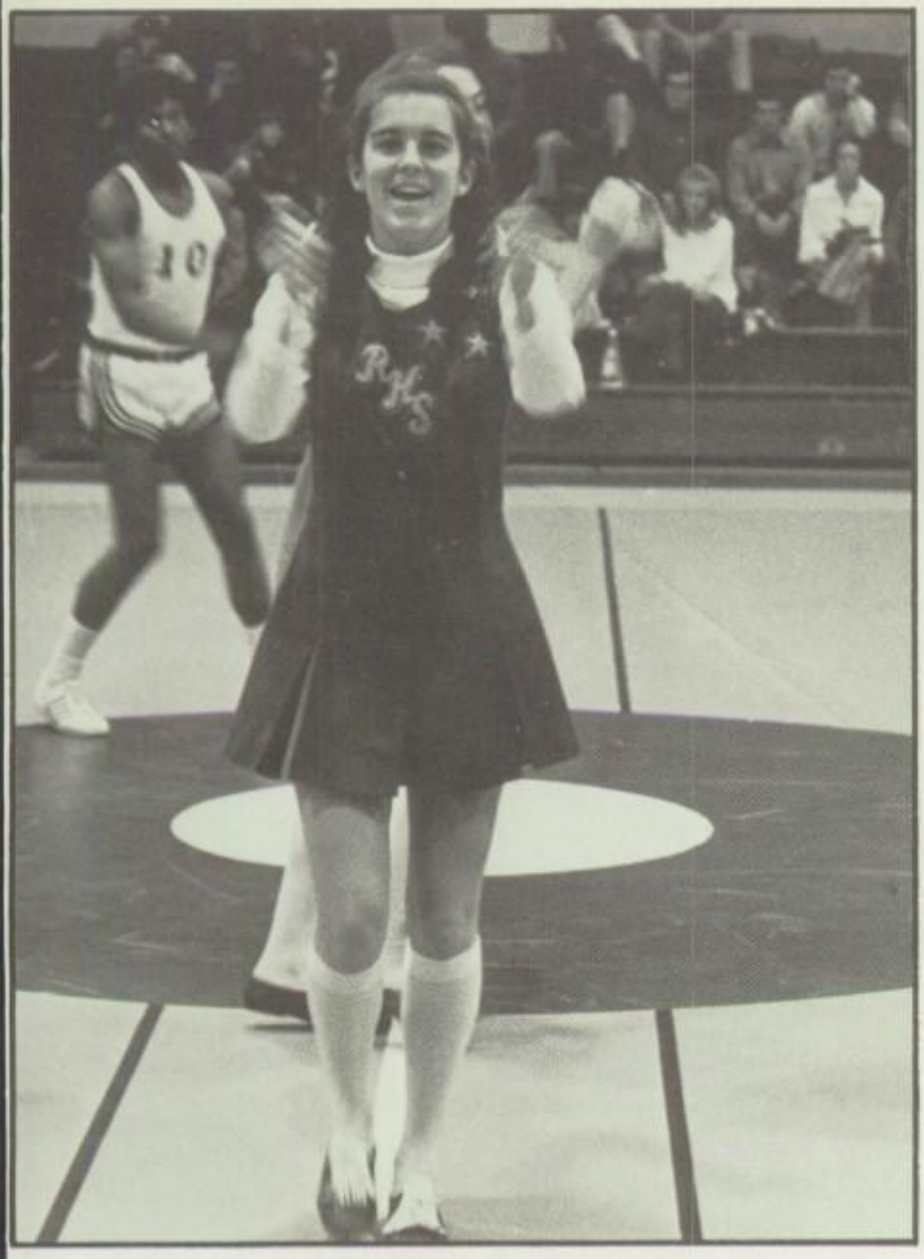
Harry Alexander Allen, III

Throughout his high school years, Alec has excelled athletically as well as scholastically. He captured the half-mile championship in the state track competition and in the State Junior Olympics. Holding the Rose High record for the mile and the half-mile, Alec was chosen the Most Valuable Player on the track team. He is currently serving as president of the Monogram Club. As a tribute to academic achievement, Alec was chosen as a marshal his junior year and was tapped into NHS. He has served as NHS vice-president this year and has worked as treasurer of the Math Club. Alec is a finalist in the competition for the Morehead Scholarship to UNC at Chapel Hill.

Timothy Alan Leith

Throughout high school Tim has demonstrated his versatility through his participation in athletics and involvement in student government. Elected Senior Class President by his classmates, Tim has helped organize homecoming, graduation, and selection of the senior class gift. He has served as an SGA representative for two years and was appointed to the Human Relations Committee. He played basketball his freshman and sophomore years and has been a member of the wrestling team. Excelling in football since his freshman year, Tim first lettered as a sophomore and made the All-Area team this year. He has been active in the Monogram Club for two years and is now fulfilling the duties of sergeant-at-arms. He also served as vice-president of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes. Because of his background in sports, Tim was chosen as Visa Sports Editor this year. After graduation, he plans to enter N. C. State University and major in veterinary medicine.



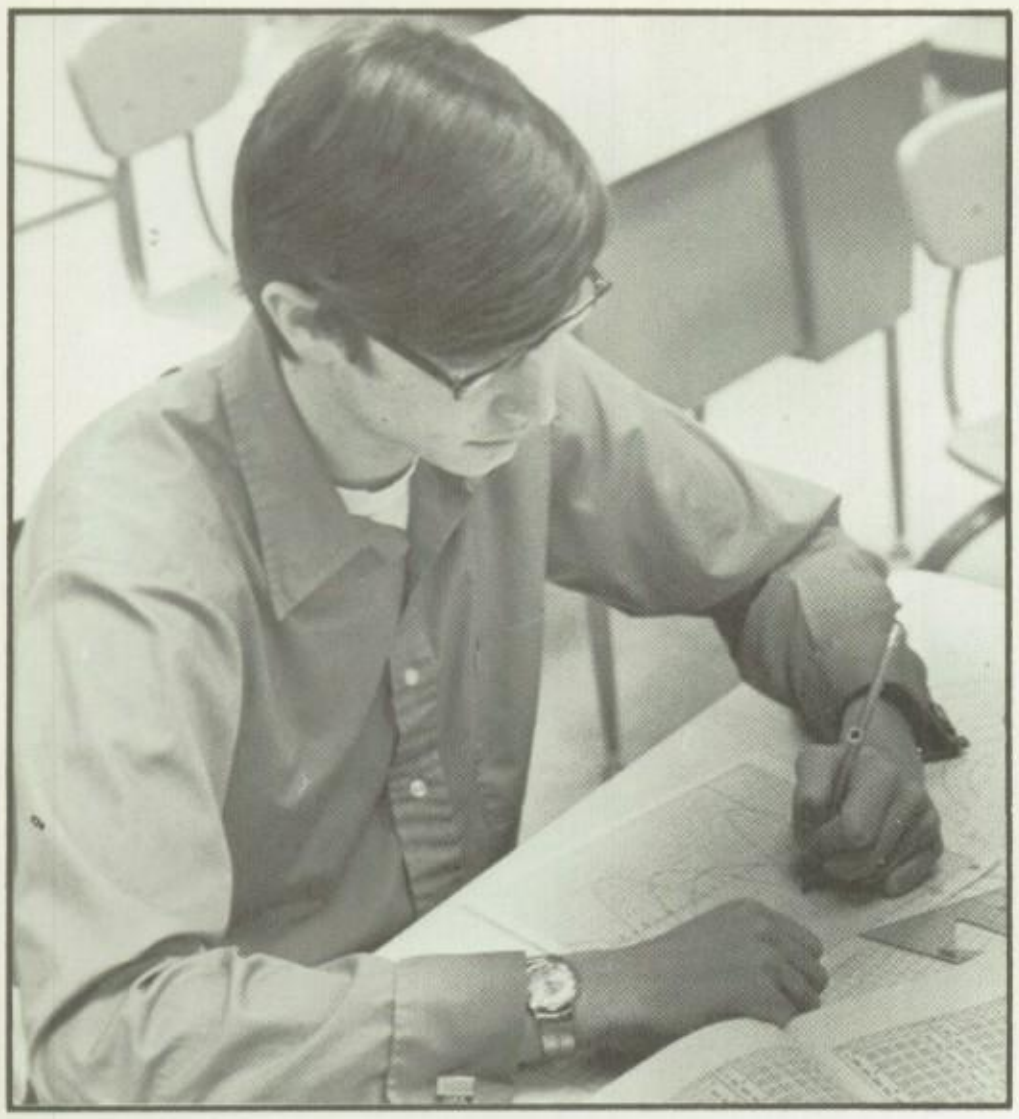


Virginia Moye Scales

Organizing pep rallies and pre-game parties for the players during the football season has characterized Ginger's year as head cheerleader. A cheerleader since her sophomore year, Ginger has also been a member of the Pep Club for the past four years. She enjoys participating in sports; she was a member of Girls' Intramurals her sophomore year and played in this year's powder-puff game. She has been a member of the Human Relations Committee and a home-room officer for three years, acting as president her senior year. Ginger plans to attend St. Mary's Jr. College next fall.

Sheila Christine Teel

Sheila's selection as 1971 Homecoming Queen climaxed her busy high school life. Her activities and interests are varied. She has been an SGA representative and was chosen as co-head cheerleader for the current year. Her outstanding work as Business Manager for the Rampant Lines led to her induction into the Quill and Scroll. She participated in both the Drama Club and the French Club her sophomore year, and was chosen as secretary of FBLA her senior year. To achieve a better understanding among students, Sheila acts as co-chairman of the Human Relations Committee. She sings with the Crusaders and is a member of the A.M.E. Zion Church choir. She plans to attend either N.C. Central University or A&T State University and major in business administration.

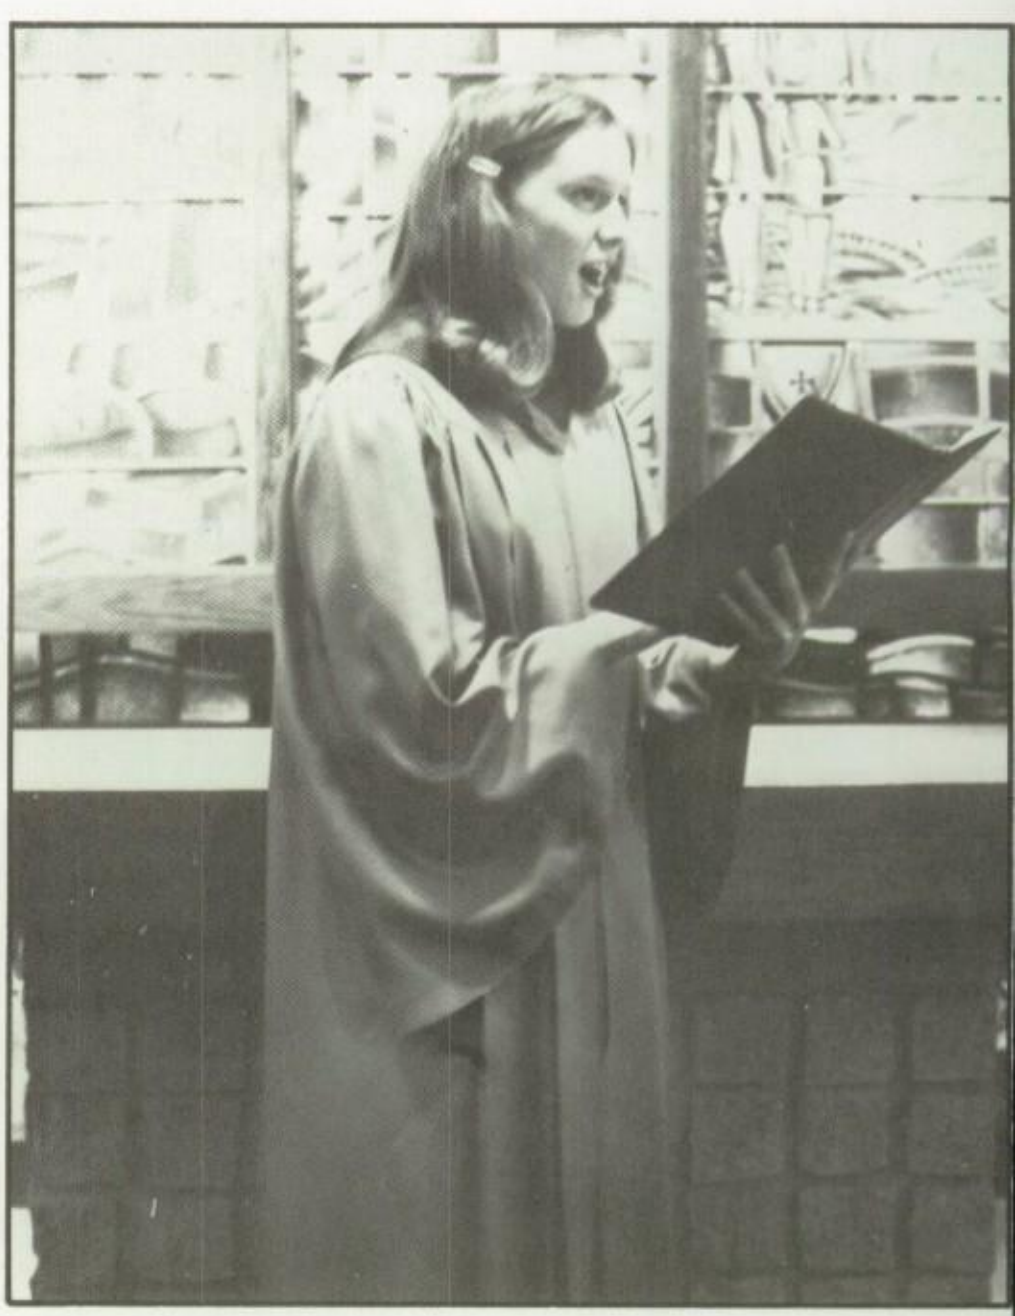


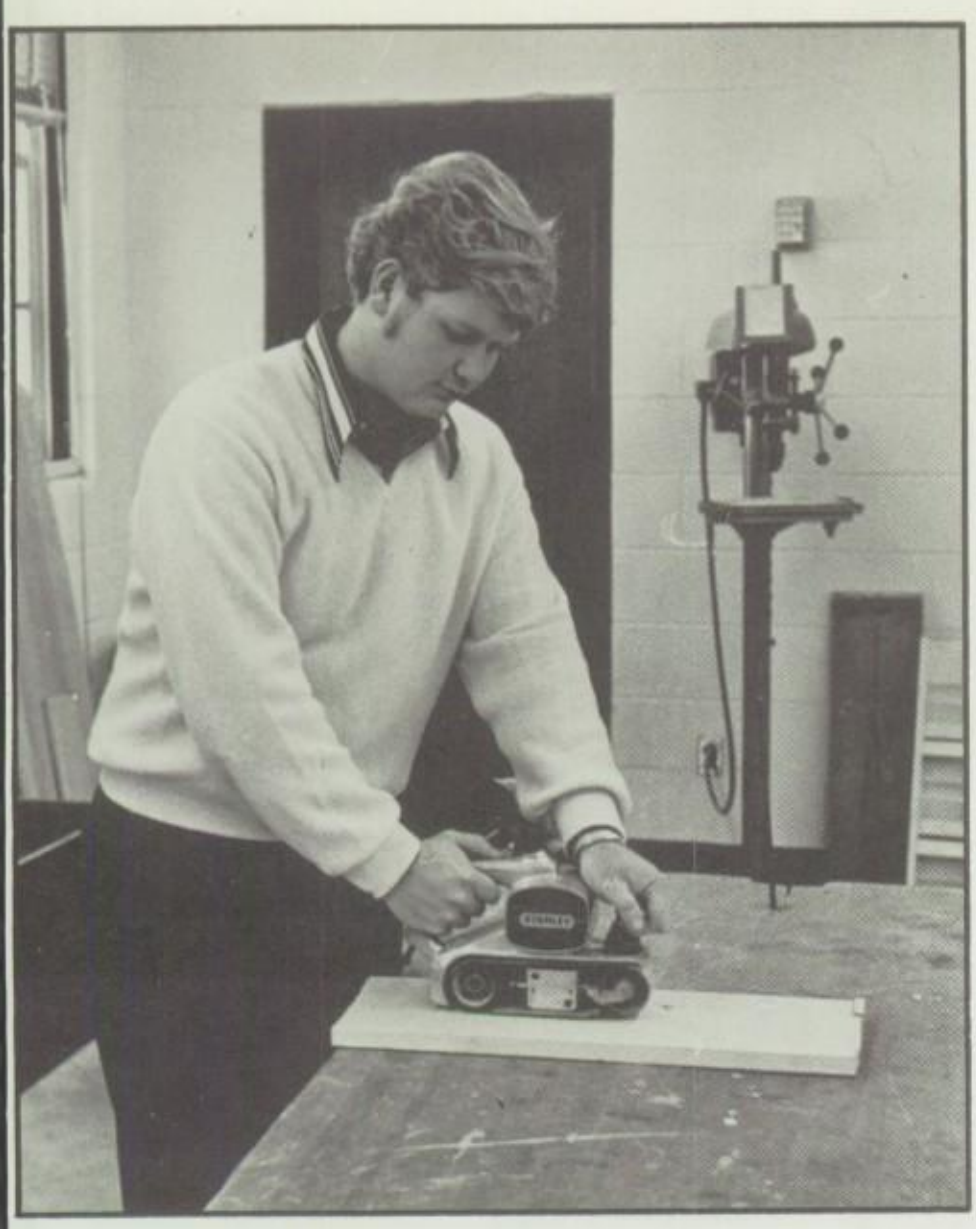
Charles Geoffrey Mitchell

Known for his keen interest and ability in mathematics and science, Geoffrey attended the 1970 Governor's School in the area of math. He has served as president of the Rose High Math Club and has been a Science Club member for three years. He was selected as a marshal his junior year. His leadership qualities have been expressed through participation in the SGA, holding offices in his homeroom, and membership in both the NHS and Quill and Scroll. Geoffrey worked on the 1969 Tau as Sports Editor and as Business Manager of the 1970 Visa. He was a delegate to the Columbia Scholastic Press Association and the N.C. Scholastic Press Institute and was selected as Layout Editor for the 1971 Visa. Geoffrey plans to major in some field of science or math in college.

Nancy Kay Clemens

As president of the Quill and Scroll, Nancy has contributed her journalistic talents to the Visa staff as Junior Class Editor and as Co-ordinating Editor this year. Studying yearbook techniques, she has attended both the Columbia Scholastic Press Association and the N.C. Scholastic Press Institute in 1970. Nancy has been a marshal, a member of the NHS, and an SGA representative. She was presented the English I Award and the DAR Service Award. Nancy was chosen president of the Future Physicians Club and has served the Science Club as secretary her sophomore year and vice-president her junior year. She played clarinet in the band for three years and was part of a woodwind quintet. Her community involvement includes serving as president of the St. James MYF youth group and singing in the choir. Nancy plans to major in pre-med at ECU.





John Ivy Brown

In recognition for his dependability, John was chosen as Business Manager of the 1971 Visa. He is an active member in Health Career and Math Clubs. John has also helped in anti-pollution projects through his involvement in the Ecology Club. He has been a representative to the SGA and was inducted into the NHS this year. John played football during his first two years in high school and helped in the construction of the senior class Homecoming float. He is a member of Hooker Memorial Christian Church where he served his youth group as CYF president his freshman year. John plans to study medicine and will begin his college training at ECU.

Sharon Joyce Costner

Recognized for her writing ability, Sharon was chosen as Copy Editor of the 1971 Visa. She has been a member of the annual staff for three years, serving as Freshman Class Editor her sophomore year and Activities Editor her junior year. Sharon was a delegate to the North Carolina Scholastic Press Institute where she studied yearbook skills. She has been a member of the Quill and Scroll for two years and was tapped into the NHS in the fall. Sharon was also elected homeroom president her junior and senior years. Because of her scholastic average, she was selected as a marshal. Hoping to further develop her journalistic skills, Sharon plans to attend UNC at Chapel Hill next year.

Katherine Eleanor Petrie

NHS President Kathy Petrie has displayed multiple talents throughout her high school career. A member of NHS for two years, Kathy was singled out for the special NHS award as a freshman. In addition, she has received the French I, II, and III awards and an All-State French I award her freshman year. As a junior Kathy was elected Science Club president. Other honors include winning the English III award and a Gold Key Award in the State Scholastic Art Show. Music is another of Kathy's interests. She has played in the Rose High band two years and represented her school in the area of music at the 1970 Governor's School. A National Merit Semi-finalist, Kathy plans to attend Michigan State University and major in philosophy.

Stephen Cole Worsley

Through his interest in government, Steve has been elected to leading positions in Rose High's SGA. He was on the Student Involvement Committee, assumed the duties of SGA treasurer his junior year, and has served as parliamentarian this year. Furthering his leadership capabilities, Steve attended Boys' State as a Rose representative. He was tapped into the National Honor Society and was chosen as a marshal his junior year. He has been on the swimming team for four years and is a member of the Monogram Club. He has also been a member of the French Club, the Future Physicians Club, and the Math Club. Long interested in Boy Scout work, Steve has received national recognition in both scouting and the Order of the Arrow. A National Merit Semi-finalist, Steve is a finalist for the Morehead Scholarship. He plans to attend UNC at Chapel Hill and major in medicine.

Christopher Peter Indorf

Chris, highly respected as an outstanding scholar, has been a member of the Science Club since his sophomore year, and received the American Chemical Society Award his junior year. He attended the National Science Foundation summer study program at UNC this past summer. He has been active in the Chess Club for three years and is a member of the newly formed Math Club. He was inducted into NHS this year and is a National Merit Semi-finalist. Chris is currently participating in an independent study at ECU. While unsure of his college plans, Chris wishes to explore his interest in science, primarily in the field of biology.

Angela Camille Barnes

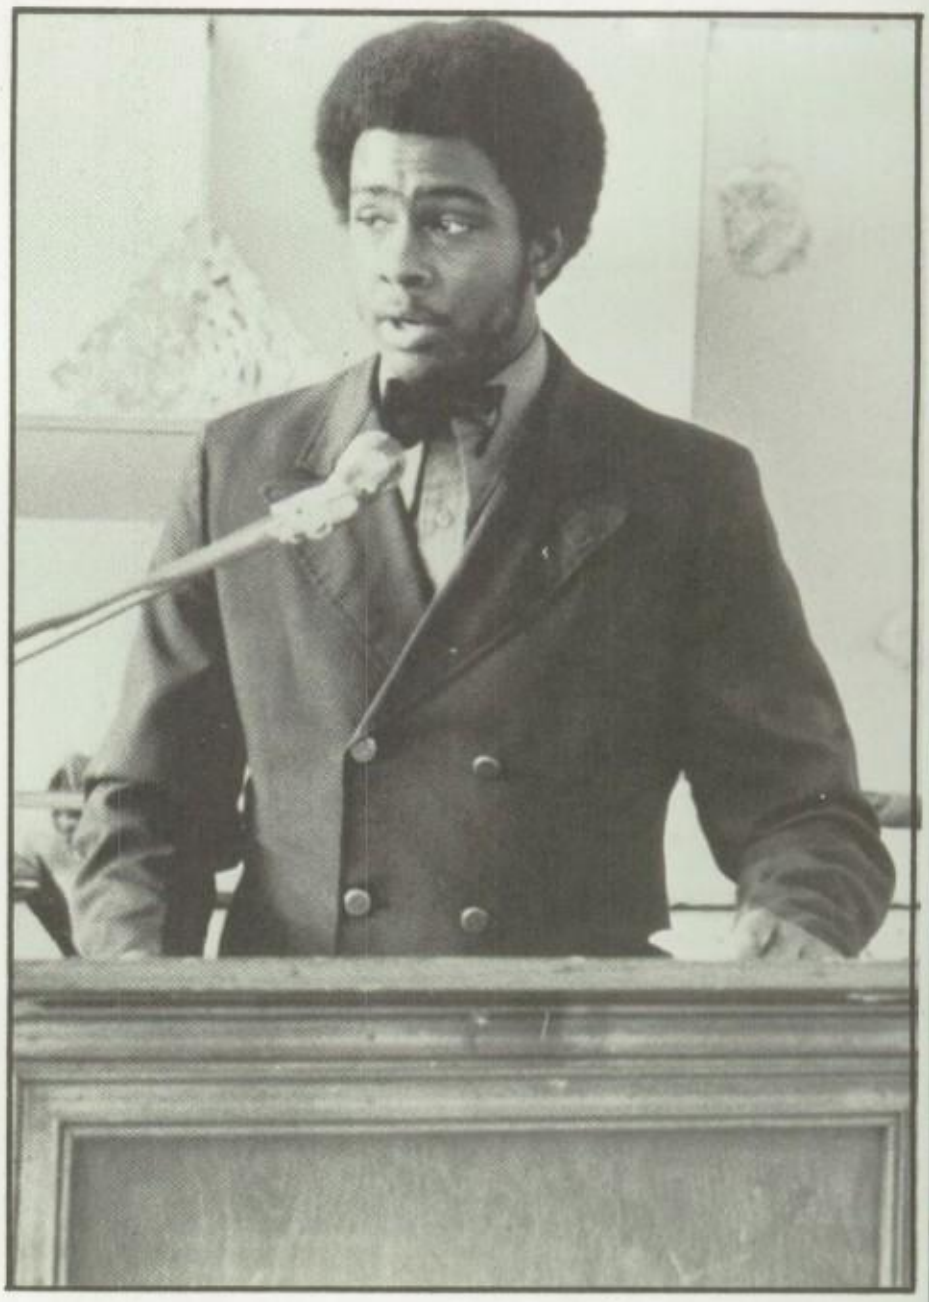
Demonstrating her capacity for leadership, Angela has acquired the title of secretary-treasurer in both NHS and Quill and Scroll. She was selected as Visa Business Manager her junior year and received the position of Sophomore Class Editor this year. She was chosen as a marshal her junior year and is now serving as a member of the Human Relations Committee. A member of the band for three years, she was a flag girl her freshman year and a majorette her sophomore and junior years. Angela has been active in Les Charmants-Elles for four years. She is currently a member of FBLA, the Drama Club, and the Pep Club. Angela plans to major in child psychology at St. Augustine's College.

Connie Jackson Minges

Connie has demonstrated her leadership ability through her duties as SGA vice-president and involvement in related committees. She has served on the Human Relations and Student Involvement Committees and has acted as a Rose representative for the March of Dimes Marchathon. Besides heading SGA car washes and bake sales, Connie organized this year's homecoming activities and aided in the designing of the senior class float. She was a cheerleader for two years and was chosen as chairman of the poster committee for the Pep Club this year. After working on the annual as Sports Editor her junior year, she was elected Senior Class Editor for the 1971 Visa. A member of NHS and Quill and Scroll, Connie plans to attend ECU.

Ernest Carlton Adams, Jr.

Representing Rose High, SGA president, Ernest Adams, has attended a leadership conference sponsored by ECU, and a state convention at Asheville. As a part of his many duties as student body president, Ernest presides at assemblies and SGA meetings, makes daily announcements over the P.A. system, and reports Rose High news on radio station WOOW. A member of the Monogram Club, Ernest has played football since his sophomore year and has been a member of the wrestling team for the past two years. He was tapped into NHS this year and was selected as Activities Editor for the 1971 Visa. Ernest hopes to continue his education in some field of business administration.



Brenda Elois Bell

Serving as vice-president of the senior class and president of Les-Charmantes-Elles, Brenda has demonstrated her interest in Rose High. Her SGA involvement led to an interview about youth problems of today on the television program "With the Hostess." She is also a member of the Citizen's Awareness Committee. Academic honors include serving as a marshal her junior year, election to NHS, and attending Governor's School where she participated in the study of natural science. Another of Brenda's interests is music. She played baritone horn in the band for three years. Presently Brenda works as Secretary to the Director of Nurses at Pitt Memorial Hospital. She is planning to major in sociology.

Susan Marlowe Leggett

Susan, well-known for her musical ability, has been a member of the Birondanjles for three years and was elected to serve as president her senior year. She was chosen as a representative to All-State Chorus her junior year. Active in sports, Susan was a member of Girls' Intramurals and won the Physical Education Award her freshman year. Currently a member of the Pep Club, Susan was a cheerleader for three years, acting as junior varsity head cheerleader her sophomore year. Out of twelve finalists, Susan was chosen as Community Ambassador to Italy last year. She is secretary of the SGA and has served on both the annual staff as Sports Editor and the newspaper staff as Page Three Editor. A member of NHS and Quill and Scroll, Susan plans to attend ECU.

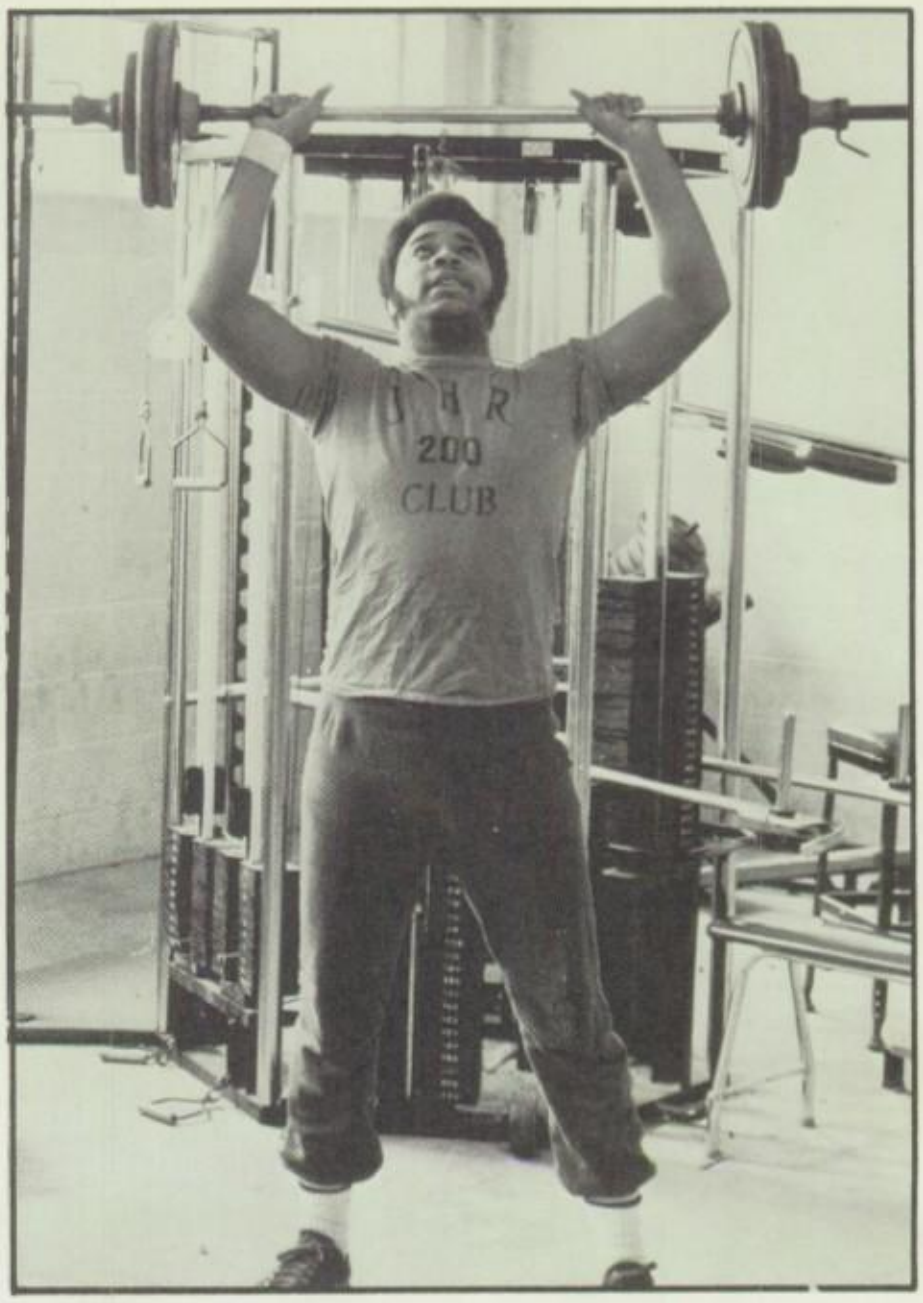
Reatha Viola Holiday

Currently acting as Activities Editor for the 1971 Visa, Reatha has been active throughout high school. As a sophomore, she was a member of the debating team, played the mellophone in the band, and received the Math Award. She was selected as a marshal her junior year. Reatha is presently treasurer of YPCL, the youth group at Mt. Calvary Freewill Baptist Church. Recently, she represented her church as a delegate to the YPCL convention in Florence, South Carolina where she was recognized for her outstanding work as a youth leader. Reatha has worked in the Greenville chapter of the Youth Corps for the past two years and plans to study psychology at N. C. Central University at Durham.

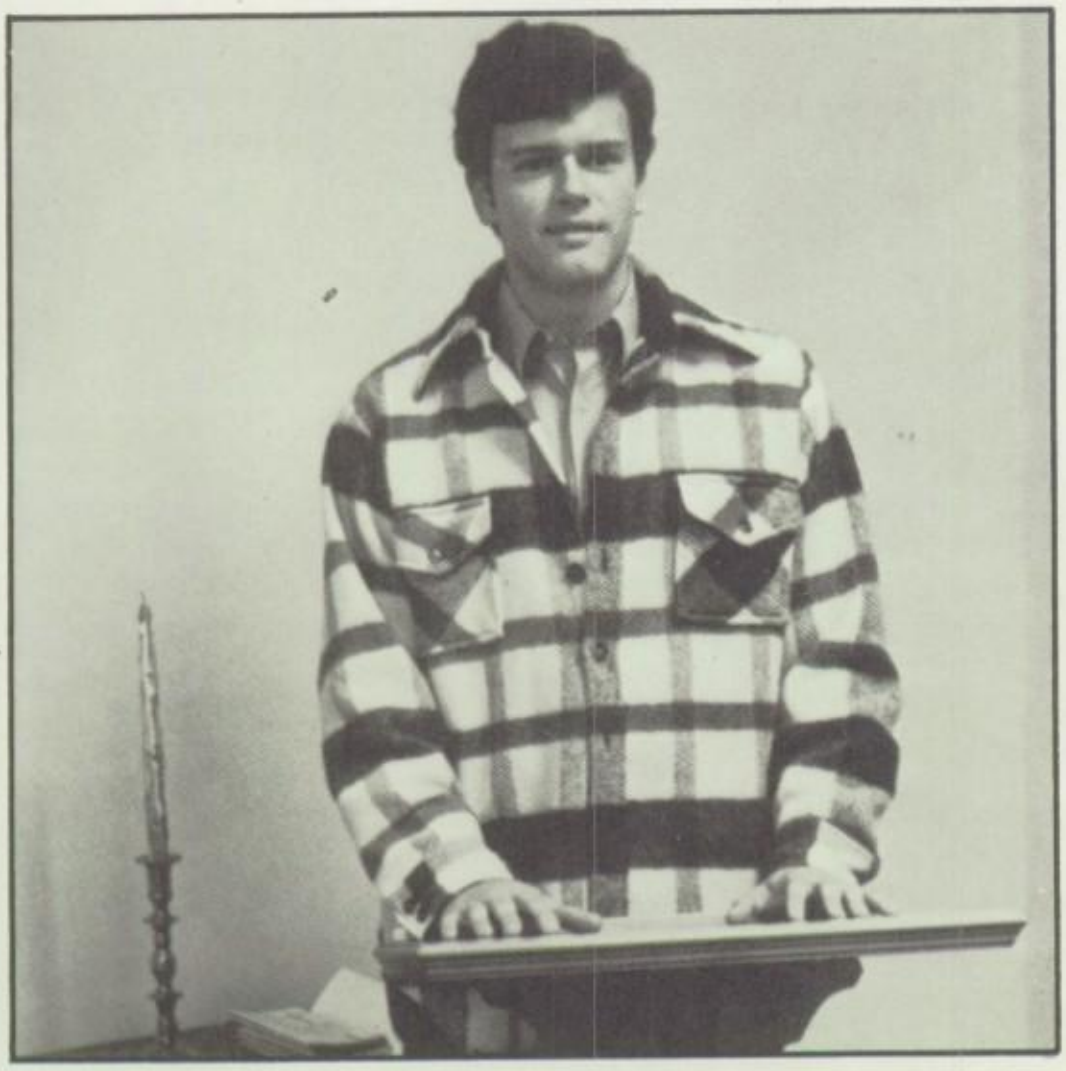
Rhonda Demetris Banks

Rhonda revealed scholastic ability early in high school work by receiving both the French and Math Awards during her freshman year. In addition, Rhonda received recognition by qualifying to serve as a marshal in 1970 and by becoming a member of the NHS her senior year. She has worked on the Visa staff for the past two years as Junior Class Editor and Business Manager. She is a member of the honor organization, the Quill and Scroll. Rhonda particularly enjoys her part-time job at Carver and Sheppard Memorial Libraries. She hopes to attend Shaw University next year and presently plans to major in math.

Jay Nichols Hagans



Jay has proved himself to be an outstanding participant in Rose High athletics. Starting as tackle all four years on the football team, Jay received the "Best Blocker" trophy for 1969 and again in 1970. Besides being recognized as the Outstanding Lineman of 1970, he was also named to the 4-A All-Conference team and given Honorable Mention All-East. He has actively participated in track and wrestled his junior and senior years. Also excelling in weight-lifting, Jay is a member of the 200 Club. Jay has received a full athletic scholarship from N. C. Central University where he intends to major in accounting. After college he hopes to play professional football.



Ralph Chapman Tucker

As president of the United Christian Youth Movement, Chap has proved himself to be a responsible and involved leader in Christian activities. In response to his leadership ability, he was elected president of the Jarvis MYF. Chap's standing among his classmates prompted his being elected homeroom president his freshman, sophomore, and junior years. He played junior varsity basketball his freshman and sophomore years and varsity his junior year. For his scholastic achievement, Chap was inducted into the NHS his third year of high school. Next fall Chap plans to attend N. C. State University at Raleigh where he will major in agricultural engineering.

Band Plays at Political Rally

Playing for Vice President Spiro Agnew during his October visit to Raleigh was one of the highlights of the year for the Rose High Band. Selected over other Eastern Carolina bands to perform at the G.O.P. rally, the Marching Rampants journeyed to Raleigh as official representatives of RHS. In spite of weary legs and sore muscles, band members tramped the practice field twice a week during football season to produce half-time routines. The band marched in parades in Greenville and neighboring towns, and performed in assemblies. Long hours of practice paid off for several band members when they were selected for All-State Band. Traveling to Greensboro, the band was judged in grade six music, the most difficult level of music.

Stage Band Takes First Prize

Through strains of "Light My Fire" and "Mercy, Mercy, Mercy," judges at Cary Band Day awarded first place to Rose High's Stage Band. In spite of tense moments during a parade, a marching contest, and an evening competition, the Stage Band topped bands from three states to walk away with first place honors. Directed by Mr. Tom Smith, Stage Band members provide entertainment for RHS assemblies and concerts, as well as playing outside engagements.

Saxophonist Lynn Sherman plays in an assembly.

Songsters Entertain With Music

Birodanjles sing around the piano in a spare moment.

Rollicking rhythms and swinging lyrics characterized the Birodanjles, a talented group of Rose High folk singers. The name was created by using initials from members' names of the original group in 1967. The Birodanjles have sung for book clubs, churches, and civic organizations and appeared on TV's "Hospitality House" in March. Students must audition for the choral director for membership and be willing to practice several times a week.

Chorus Competes On State Level

Ten brave souls from Advanced Chorus and Ensemble were selected for the State Solo Competition held at Meredith College in Raleigh. The selections were made after a district contest at New Bern High School in February. Chosen on the basis of merit, several of the district participants traveled to UNC-Greensboro to represent Rose High at the State Choral Competition. Climaxing long hours of practice, the chorus department presented a variety of musical performances throughout the year, including several Christmas programs and a spring concert. Invited to participate in a Festival of Music at Tarrytown Mall, the chorus journeyed to Rocky Mount along with approximately 50 other schools.

Advanced Chorus Members are: Laforest Barrett, Carla Boseman, David Bowman, Roselind Causey, Bill Cheek, Joyce Collins, Jackie Crawford, Becky Cullop, Vickie Davenport, Jeanette Davis, Sandra Downing, Kathy Hathaway, Barbara Hudson, Yvonne Jones, Cheryl Joyner, Colene Kelly, Kathy Kirk, Ed Lewis, Faye Manning, Terri Miller, Carolyn Mills, Brenda Murray, Anne Petrie-pianist, Bill Shields, Landy Spain, Martha Sugg, Sylvester Tyson, Vickie Vultee, Dwayne Williams.

Chorus I Members are: Barbara Allen, Patricia Anderson, Janice Broaddick, Carri Brown, Hannah Cherry, Kathryn Clark, Nancy Cleetwood, Julia Ann Cleveland, Joan Cobb, Geraldine Clemons, Patricia Chenier, Helen Cox, Martha Davenport, Vicky Diener, Mary Davis, Kelly Darden, Betty Dupree, Debra Foskey, Vickie Garris, Belinda Gardner, Brown Glenn, Cassandra Harris, Kaye Herring, Annie Hunter, Phyllis Johnson, Brenda Jones, Muriel Jones, Sheryl Langley, Amy Leggett, Leslie Lincoln, Gail McLawhorn, Terry Maye, Audrey Massey, Mary Bryan Matney, William Moore, Catherine Parker, Bill Penny, Addie Northern, Nancy Shealy, Hannah Singleton, Barbara Stancil, Beth Thomas, Laura Tyson, Laura Vines, Toni Weston, Barbara White, John Wier, Hilda Williams, Rosalyn Williams, Sandra Williams, Charlene Williams, James Earl Yarrell, Elbert Wilson, Shirley Vines, Cindy Snelling, Susie Hill-pianist.

Visa Staff Goes Insane

"Come in. Welcome to the insane asylum!" This warning is posted on the door to the annual room, the insane asylum of J. H. Rose High. A visitor would assume that the Visa hideout is actually a garbage dump. However, a resident of the asylum, a staff member, would immediately recognize the torn layout sheets, broken typewriters, and left-over pictures—the products of a deranged photographer. Letters which begin "Dear Abby, Here I am, imprisoned in a looney farm ..." are being aimlessly typed, someone is writing an ode to a headache, and the entire staff is wandering about singing strange songs and babbling nonsense. The disease which has infected their minds is a combination of late hours, missing classes, and approaching deadlines. In spite of this hectic environment, copy gets checked and rechecked, layouts get laid out and approved, and finally the stacks of "quack-paks" are rushed to the post office amid the sighs of weary staffers.

Moments of anguish and hilarity initiated "The Wall," the product of a demented staff.

Newspaper Wins Award

"Where's the booger?" echoes the battle cry of Rampant Lines staffers as they take up arms against their rivals the Visa staff. Between monthly deadlines, the newspaper staff searches for their wad of rubber cement, commonly known as the "booger," which was allegedly stolen by the yearbook staff to gain their own evil ends.

Producing a monthly paper up to the high standards of the National Scholastic Press Association is no easy task; however, the Journalism II class of 1970 made the grade and was awarded All-American for their publication. Each month the staff agonizes over headlines, cutlines and editorials to produce the six-page newspaper known as the Rampant Lines.

SGA Incorporates New Practices

Poverty-stricken after financing a student handbook at the beginning of the year, the Student Government Association attempted to replenish its pocketbook through several money-making schemes. One of these was a 150% increase in the price of parking stickers, a practice bemoaned by anti-inflation experts at Rose. Other projects included a car wash and a bake sale to help finance Homecoming and other major events. A new branch of student government, the Human Relations Committee, met regularly to promote better understanding among students. Another practice adopted for the first time was the election of class officers. Led by President Ernest Adams, the SGA attempted to provide a student voice in the administration and policies of Rose High School.

Rose Pep Club Boasts Record-Breaking Membership

Balloons, bake sales, and car washes were some of the money-making projects sponsored by the 1971 Pep Club. Members sold mums at Homecoming and t-shirts silk-screened with the Rampant emblem as part of their fund-raising campaign. Colorful banners and posters created by the poster committee reminded students of upcoming sports events. Supporting the cheerleaders, the Pep Club cheered at football games and attended several out-of-town contests.

With a large membership, Pep Club activities are well attended.

Janet Mills displays Rampant t-shirts for sale.

Monogram Club Honors Letterman

Reaping profits from gate receipts at athletic events and sponsoring the concession stand at home basketball games, the filthy rich Monogram Club contributes money from these projects to the Athletic Fund. An organization of Rose athletes, the Monogram Club is an honorary service organization. Easily recognized by their blue, green, and white monogram jackets, these brawny brutes act as bouncers at Rose High basketball games.

Monogram Club officers are Ken Perkins (secretary), Bill Whiteford (treasurer), Tim Leith (sergeant-at-arms), Alec Allen (president). Not pictured is Bubba Rawl (vice-president).

U.C.Y.M. Sends Girls Abroad

The United Christian Youth Movement sponsors the Community Ambassador program each year and earns all the money necessary to send the ambassadors abroad. Susan Leggett and Elizabeth Jones went to Italy and Greece where they lived with families for six weeks. In addition to this project, the U.C.Y.M. holds mass meetings every six weeks in which programs featuring Greenville youth are given. The U.C.Y.M. Easter Sunrise Service is enjoyed by both Rose students and Greenville citizens.

The U.C.Y.M. Executive Council plans the programs for mass meetings.

Susan Leggett points out where she stayed in Italy.

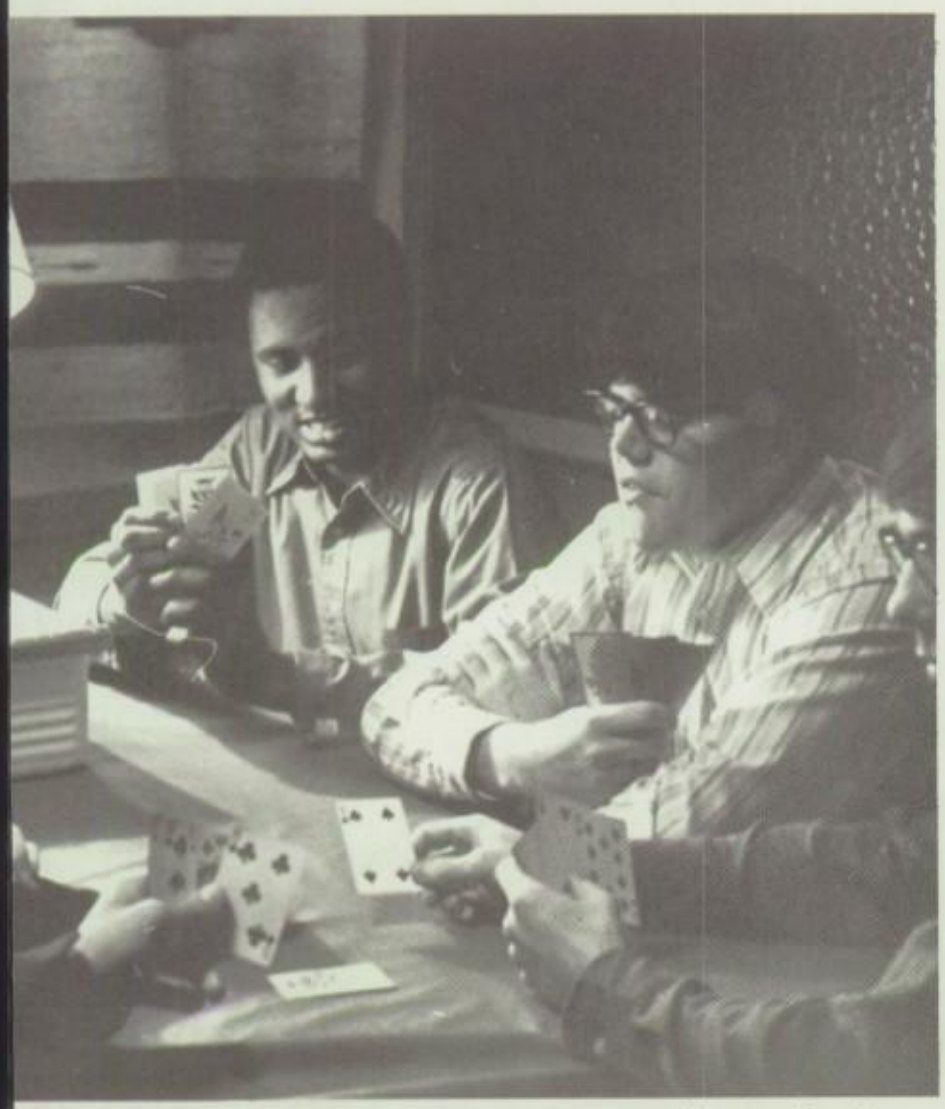
Elizabeth Jones fulfills her obligation by presenting a program for an organization which supported the project.

C.F.C. Hosts Speakers

Early each morning, the Council for Christ meets for devotions and fellowship before school. Special speakers and Bible studies comprise the programs. Caroling at Christmas and having an annual banquet complete the year's activities.

Members of the Council for Christ are: Angela Tugwell, Mary Marcia Winslow, David Langley, Judy Smith, Debbie Payne, Sandy Tharp, Mary Doyle, Steve Jackson, John Barber, Sandy Daniels, Cindi Easterling.

Tournaments Challenge Chess Club



Relaxing after a chess game, members turn their attention to a game of Hearts.

Utilizing a challenge ladder system to determine the ranking of the members, the Chess Club competes in tournaments with other high schools by mail and by actual games. Operating under new organization and a written constitution, the club meets weekly at the members' homes. Despite an avid loyalty to the game of chess, members sometimes trade chessmen for a deck of cards and play Hearts for variety.

Tony Avera and Pat Chenier concentrate over a game.

Athletes Discuss Religious Topics

In its second year of operation, the Fellowship of Christian Athletes provided an opportunity for athletes to discuss religion in a relaxed, informal atmosphere. Members got together in huddle groups for discussion, and sometimes enjoyed volleyball and softball games.

Members include Ken Perkins, Bob Barrett, Bill Whiteford, Karl Faser, Tim Leith, Steve Rowland, Billy Sutton, Al Hunter, Ernie Adams.

Crusaders Serve Community

An inter-religious group, the Crusaders sing in revivals and go on religious tours. A major project of the Crusaders was Operation Helping Hand in which they helped remodel Allen Chapel. The Crusaders are advised by Mr. Johnny Wooten.

D.E. Club Boasts Student of Year

Claiming the title of Student of the Year in the Eastern District, D.E. President Mary Sue Hooks advanced to state competition in March. Among projects sponsored by the D.E. Club was a Christmas party for children at Caswell Training Center. Through job experience, the Distributive Education Clubs of America strive to develop leadership and a sense of individual responsibility in the field of distribution.

Rose FBLA Assists Salvation Army Drive

Films, guest speakers, and panel discussions highlighted the programs of the 1970-71 Future Business Leaders of America. A Christmas project of addressing and stuffing envelopes for the Salvation Army's Christmas drive is a regular activity. Members worked all year on the chapter scrapbook which is displayed when they traveled to the state convention in April. There they enter contestants in the Mr. and Miss Future Business Leader contests. The FBLA is open to any student who has completed or is enrolled in a business course and who wishes to develop leadership in the field of business. Officers of the FBLA are Janet Nethercutt (president), Sally Hardee (vice-president), Sheila Teel (secretary), Sherry Francis (treasurer), and Manzer Saad (reporter).

Members look over the FBLA handbook.

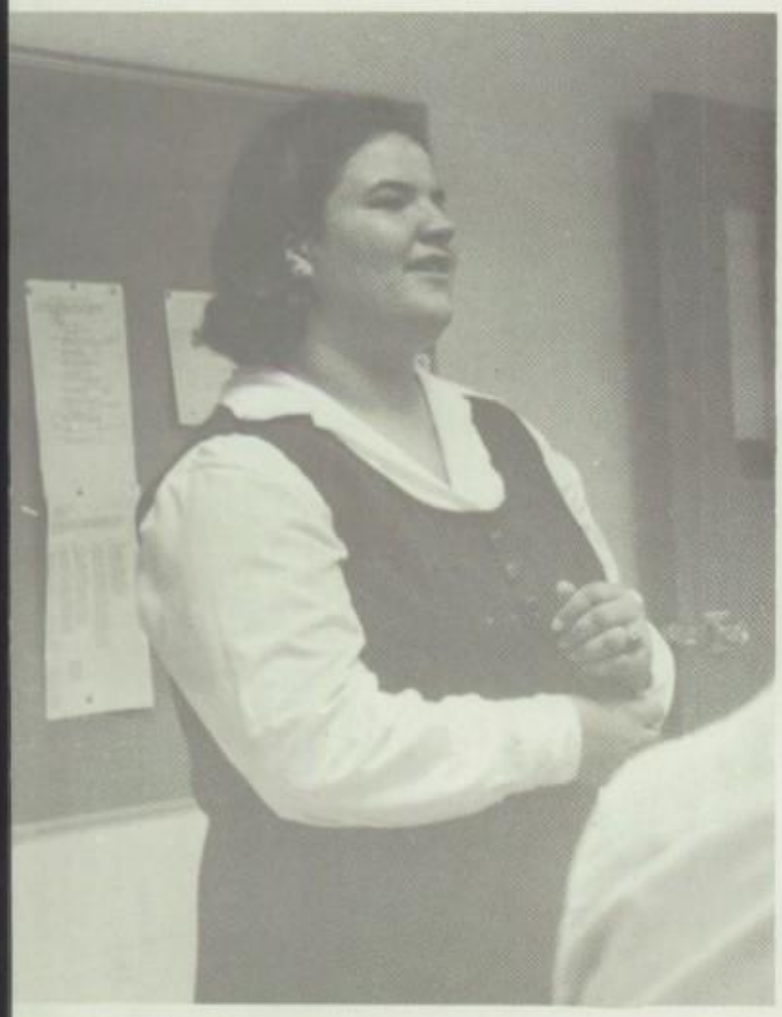
Future Nurses, Physicians Merge

The Health Careers Club, formed through the merger of the Future Nurses and the Future Physicians Clubs, serves the Greenville community while furthering an interest in health-related areas. Candy stripers worked at Pitt Memorial Hospital and Greenville Nursing Home aiding nurses and running errands. Several seniors earned caps for 100 hours of work. Club members campaigned for the Hospital Bond Issue in November by distributing information. A Christmas program of carols and skits provided entertainment for the nursing home patients. At regular meetings, speakers presented programs relating to medicine.

Members pay dues to treasurer Gary Snyder.



President Anne Smith conducts a business meeting.

Candy stripers Lois Brown and Sally Boyette handle towels at the hospital.

FHA Club Sponsors Banquet

Sponsoring a mother-daughter banquet during FHA week, attending the state convention in Raleigh, and traveling to Rocky Mount for the district rally highlighted FHA activities for 1971. Headed by president Donna Chapman, and advisors Mrs. Erma Carr and Mrs. Carmen Dawkins regular meetings featured demonstrations on good grooming and weight control. The purpose of the Future Homemakers of America is to promote an appreciation of homemaking and encourage democracy in home and community life.

Members make sandwiches for a faculty tea.

Sewing is an integral part of the homemaker's skill.

FTA Attends State Convention

Members tack the FTA emblem on the board for a meeting.

Stressing the fundamentals of a teaching career is the key objective of the Future Teachers' Association. At the club's monthly meetings, members not only listen to guest speakers talk on various aspects of the teaching field, but also participate in part of the programs by making educational bulletin boards. As service projects, the FTA sends Christmas cards to retired teachers, entertain the faculty at a tea in April, and supplies the library with magazines on education. Advised by Mrs. Baldwin, the FTA sends delegates to the club's state convention in March.

Mrs. Baldwin talks to girls about plans for the convention.

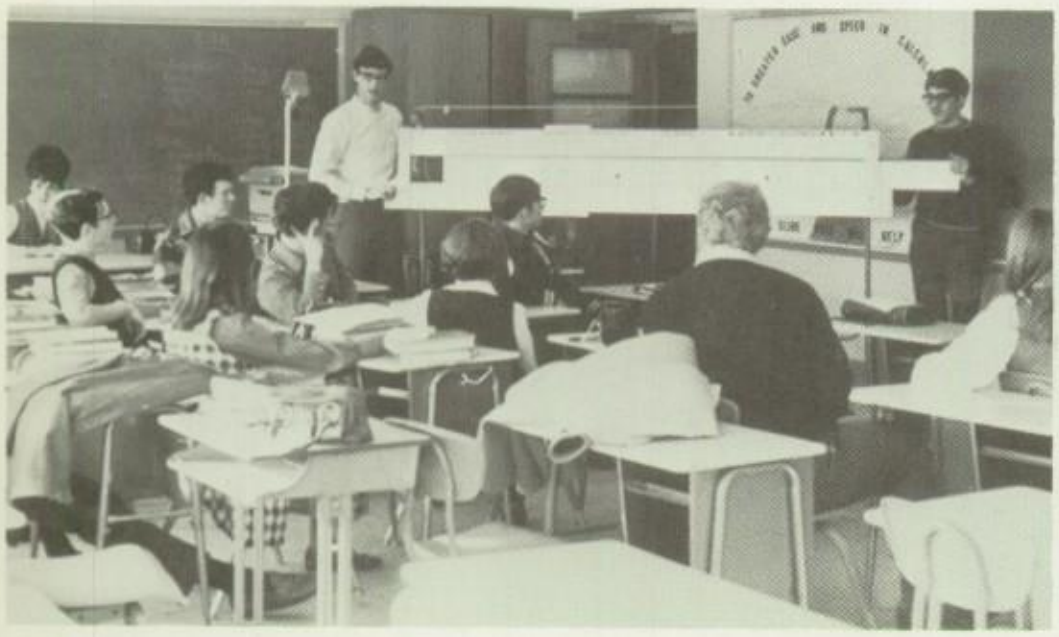
Rose Math Club Chartered By MAΘ

Non-Euclidian geometry, matrices, and circular functions are common terms to members of the Mathematics Club. Newly formed this year, the Math Club works to promote interest in mathematics by featuring speakers on such complex topics as computer science and ancient number systems. As a local chapter of Mu Alpha Theta, a national mathematics organization, the Math Club requires at least five semesters of college prepatory math and an overall B average for membership.



Geoffrey Mitchell and David Howell explain the theory of logarithms on the slide rule.

The officers of the Math Club are Alec Allen (treasurer), Geoffrey Mitchell (president), Jim Birchard (vice-president), and David Howell (secretary).

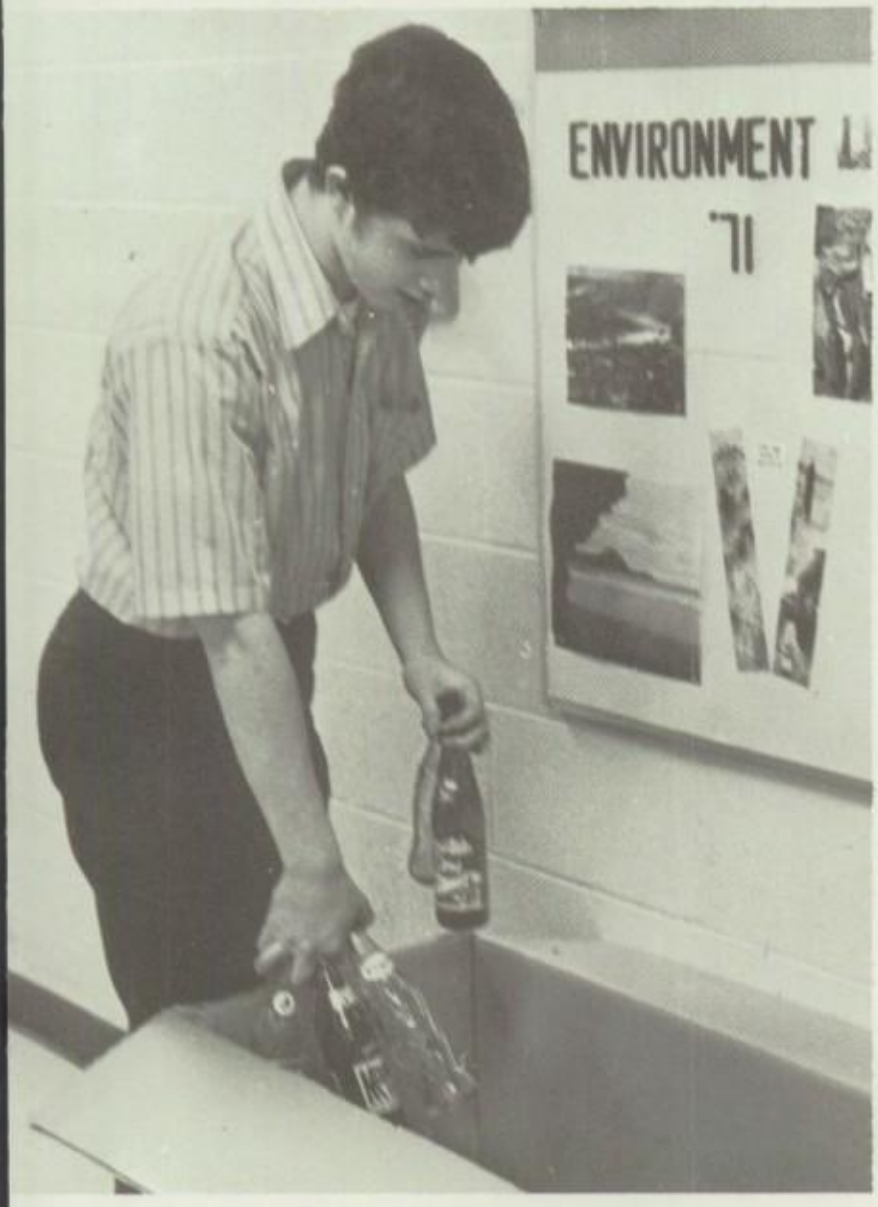
Club Launches Ecology Campaign

The ecology-minded New Science Club works on a variety of projects to check pollution in the Greenville area and to inform Rose High students. The club created a float for Homecoming which encouraged a clean-up program. A paper drive, collecting old coke bottles, and hosting speakers on ecology were some of the programs. A campus clean-up campaign ended in near-disaster when the collected rubble was locked out of the city dump.

An ECU student presents an ecology program.

Club members pick up trash on campus grounds.

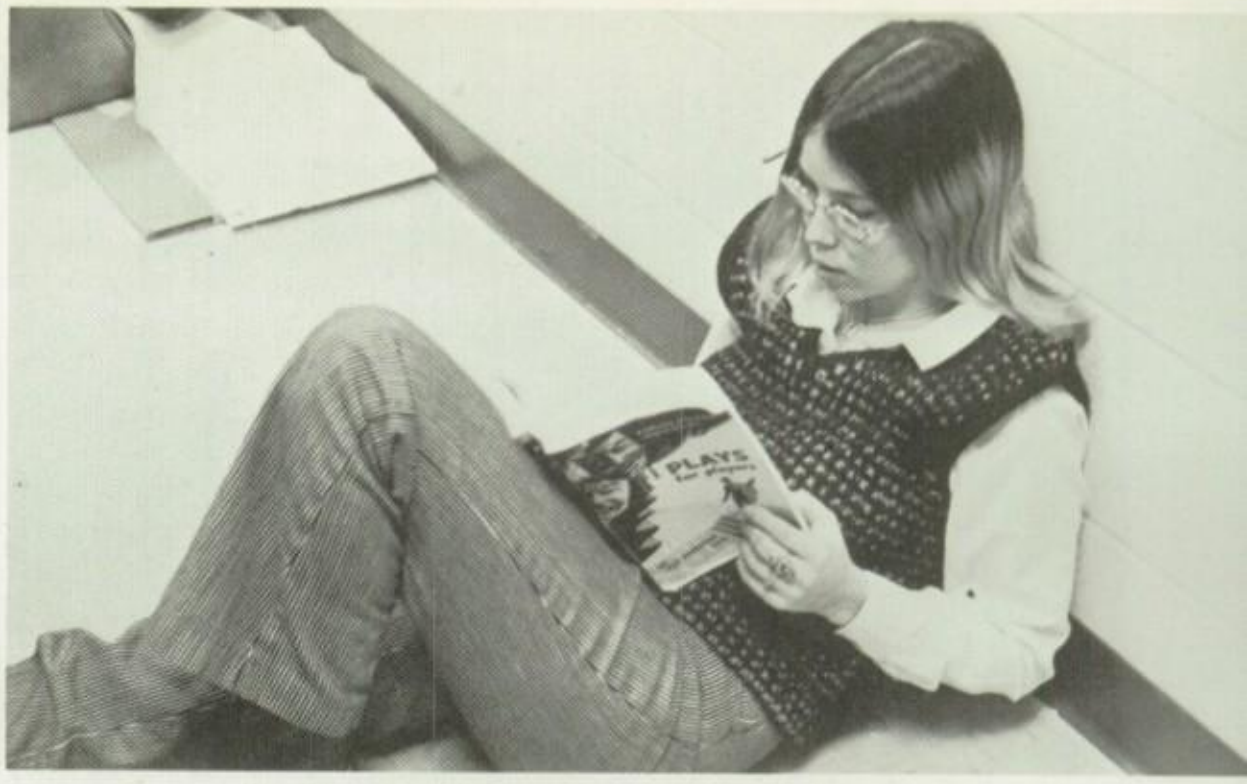
Anti-pollution lectures hold members' attention.



Joe Swain adds to the 257 bottle collection.

Drama Club Attends Plays

The Dramatics traveled to the North Carolina School of the Arts in December to see The Sign in Sidney Brustein's Window, a play by Lorraine Hansberry. They have attended The Night Thoreau Spent in Jail, Exit the King and other dramatic presentations at ECU. Skits presented by the club entertained the student body at assemblies. Under the direction of Mrs. Sue Castellow, the Dramatics produced their annual comedy in the spring.



President Judy Cline studies the script of a new play.

Drama Club Members are: Judy Cline (president), Annie Young Clark (secretary), Jan Durham (v.-president), Sue Trevathan (publicity chairman), Rebecca Jones, Cathy Wilson, Jennifer Schaal, Vickie Vultee, Lynda Stine, Cynthia Easterling, Nancy Snowden.

Annie Young Clark and Lynda Stine practice in a self-made prop.

French Club members are: Laura Ebbs, Mme. Davenport (advisor), Mickey Jones, Anna Carson, Karen Tyson, Linda Fleming, Lois Brown, Nancy Snowden, Jim Birchard, Margaret Stevens, Sally Boyette.

French Club Explores Language

Exploring the French language beyond the classroom is the goal of Le Cercle Francais. Meeting monthly under the direction of Mrs. Selina Davenport, the club places a special emphasis on the practical usage of the French language through verbal participation. Officers include Laura Ebbs (president), Margaret Stevens (v.-president), Lois Brown (secretary-treasurer), and Mickey Jones (program chairman).

Several members discuss plans for the next meeting.

Rampants Close With Winning Streak

Starting out slowly and plagued with poor luck, the Rampant gridders began to improve steadily and won four of the last five games in their second year of tough Division II, 4-A competition. The highlight of the season appeared in the last game when they upset the division champions 14-13. The defense, rugged throughout the season, came through to overthrow Goldsboro. The defeat of the Cougars left the team with a 4-6 record overall and a winning 3-2 division record, putting them in third place. The 1970 football Rampants were coached by Head Coach Bud Phillips and Assistant Coaches James Brewington and David Bumgarner.

J.V. Gridders Develop Skills

Coaches Meteye and Jones discuss strategy with quarterback Dean Phillips.

Gaining experience essential to the making of a well-rounded football player, the Rampant Cubs spent their season developing individual skills and drilling on fundamentals. Practicing diligently, the players prepared for varsity action next year. Acting as assistant coaches, several college students added innovations and aided the regular coaching staff in leading the boys to a 2-5 record.

The pep talk puts the players in the proper frame of mind.

Anxious moments are spent on the bench.

Pass protection blocking is executed by the J.V. line.

Cross Country Makes Debut

For the first time in Rose High athletic history, fall sports included a cross country team. Although the harriers lost their only match 13-33 to Wilson, they set the stage for future competition. Track distance veterans formed the nucleus of the autumn addition.

Cross Country runners are Joe Tronto, Jeff Cargile, Billy Sutton, and Alec Allen.

Allen leads Cargile and Sutton through the final woodland stretch.

Demonstrating their root to defeat, tracksters return to their natural habitat.

J.V.'s Capture Title

Led by Co-captains J. C. Daniels and Wish Wooten, the Rampant Cubs finished with a 14-6 record to clinch the Division II Championship. The most exciting game was a 54-50 overtime victory over Sanderson in Raleigh, avenging a one-point loss at home. After several disappointing losses at the beginning of the season, the team improved steadily to finish with five straight wins.

Cagers Have Rebuilding Season

Facing a rugged schedule in the 4-A Conference, the Rampants played some of the toughest teams in North Carolina. As of mid-Febraury, 6 of 11 games had been won – the best game being against New Bern with a score of 71 to 60. This season Robert Kear was top scorer averaging about 16 points per game. Because of tne fierce competition, Coach Meteye's team gained valuable experience and looks forward to a promising season next year.

Grapplers Earn Second Place In Divisionals

The 1970-71 wrestling team stayed in contention for the division championship until late in the season when the matman suffered their only division loss to New Bern. The final standings found Coach Bud Phillips' team with an 11-2 record and a second place in the division ranks with several wrestlers making a good showing in the sectionals.

Seniors provide a strong base.

Aided by the experience and coaching of Bob Moynihan, Rose aquanauts acquired their first victory in two years against Page High School with a score of 48-47. Having access to ECU's Minges Coliseum pool has enabled Rampant swimmers and divers to compete with larger schools, including Grimsley, Hampton, Chapel Hill, ECU Jr. Varsity, and several military academies. In the Atlantic Seaboard Swimming and Diving Championships, Rose placed fifteenth among over 40 teams.

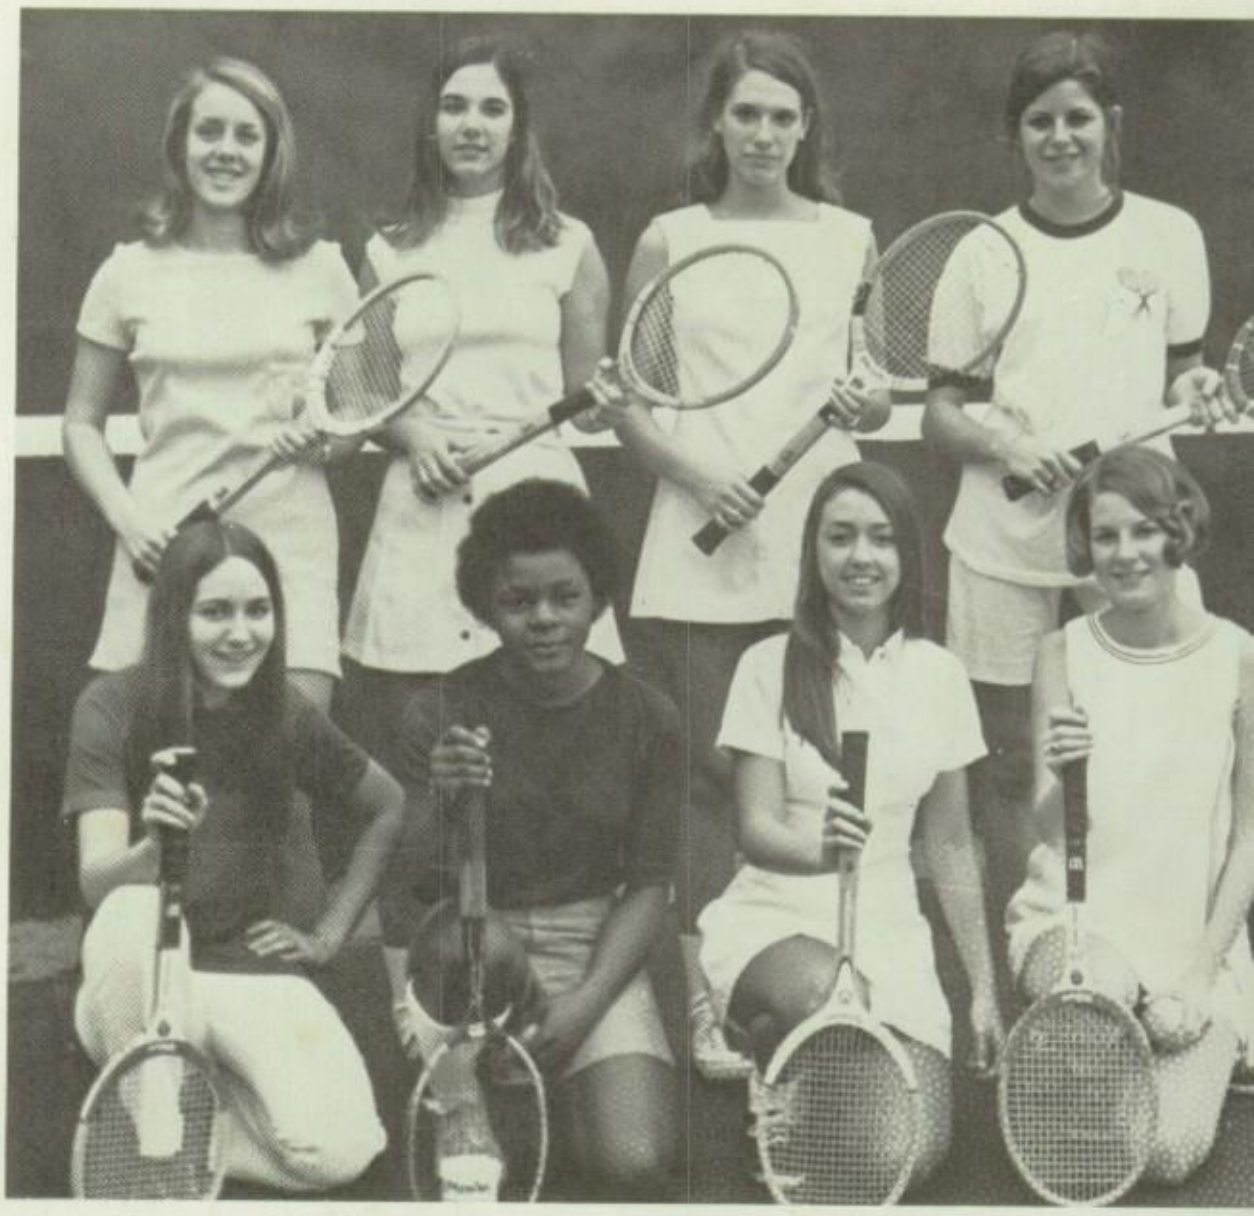
Girls Initiate Tennis Team

Because of Greenville's growing interest in tennis, several girls started a separate girls' team. Scratched knees and sore muscles faced the female racketeers after their first tournament. In addition to intramural matches, the team played official tournaments against Kinston, Goldsboro, Rocky Mount, and New Bern.

With the return of several lettermen, the boys' tennis team showed more experience than in previous years. Improvements on the city courts aided both teams at practice and at actual matches.



Members of the Girls' Tennis Team are: FIRST ROW: Beth Thomas, Elaine Hawkins, Mary Margaret Morton, Val Hooper. SECOND ROW: Josie Rawl, Lisa Glidewell, Jackie Welch, Chip East.

Cindermen Take Second Place In Divisionals

Finishing second in last year's Division II competition and seventh in the state, Rose High track team approached the season with enthusiasm. Having only a small group of senior lettermen, Coach Bob Jones relied heavily upon a group of sophomores who had been outstanding in Junior Olympic competition. Several thinclads ably represented Rose at the Duke-Durham relays.

Glovemen Win Tri-Championship

Boasting 13 wins and 4 losses, the Rose High baseball team finished the season as Division II Tri-Champions. The team was undefeated at home, with the highest scoring game being an 11-2 victory over Goldsboro. Lasting for 12 innings, the longest game of the season was against Williamston. With two conference championships to their credit, the '71 baseball team came into this year's competition with confidence and hopes for another winning season.

Cheerleaders Back J.V. Teams

At first an inexperienced squad, the Junior Varsity Cheerleaders learned to boost school spirit at J.V. football and basketball games. Coached by the Varsity squad, the J.V. Cheerleaders decorated the goal posts, made several break-throughs, and sold programs and Rampant buttons during the football season. Composed exclusively of sophomores, the J.V.'s hope to rise to the Varsity squad next year.

Varsity Cheerleaders Support Rampants

The 1970-71 Varsity Cheerleaders are: FIRST ROW: Brenda Branch, Ginger Scales (Head), Elfreda Smith. SECOND ROW: Peggie Jones, Linda Branch, Betty Battle, Linda Brown. THIRD ROW: Susie Still, Kathy Williams, Val Hooper, Josie Rawl, Patti Sanders. NOT PICTURED: Sheila Teel (Co-head).

Practicing in mid-August heat, the Varsity Cheerleading squad began preparations for the football season. During the season they supplied the players with cake, sandwiches, and drinks to help boost the team's energy and morale after each Thursday's practice. Assisted by the Pep Club, they made "Bomb the Bears" banners and "Kill Kinston" posters for the foyer. In addition to cheering at assemblies, they sparked enthusiasm at football and basketball games.

Zurav, Janet 125

"I walk alone and I wonder who I am . . ."
For the graduates
the search must continue beyond these doors . . .
There have been moments of laughter and disillusionment . . .
Memories fill the emptiness and the halls await the reverberation of new voices.
Then the search begins again . . .
